QUEENS CO.—

County seat is Long Island City. A good part of the old County of Queens is now included in the Greater New York, and a law changing the name of that portion of the old county outside of Greater New York to Nassau County went into effect January 1, 1899. The amount of the outstanding bonds of this county which will be chargeable to the city of New York has been finally determined by the Supreme Court (V. 71, p. 875.) Under this decision the city of New York is liable for $3,796,032 11 of the old debt of Queens County as it stood at the date of division, and the remaining $1,011,967 89 becomes an obligation of Nassau County. Instead of apportioning certain bonds to New York City and to Nassau County, the debt and interest will not be divided, but will be paid by New York City, Nassau County paying over its proportion as it becomes due. New York City pays ·78952414973 of the principal and interest as it becomes due, and Nassau County ·21047585027.

The statement below shows the obligations of the old County of Queens which remained outstanding on Jan. 1, 1903.

Legislature meets annually the second Tuesday of January, and there is no limit to the length of the session.

HISTORY OF DEBT.—New Jersey has always been a conservative State; there are consequently no facts out of which to construct a history of debt issues. In a report made in 1838 the financial officer of the State affirmed that New Jersey had put out no obligations of any kind or loaned its credit to any company. The Constitution of 1844 forbade the creating of a State debt exceeding one hundred thousand dollars except for purposes of war, &c., as will more fully appear in the item below with respect to "debt limitation." This exception, under which it was allowable to exceed the hundred-thousand-dollar limit became operative on the occasion of the breaking out of our Civil War. Quite a debt was created at that period. The last of these war bonds were retired on Jan. 1, 1902.

TOTAL DEBT.—With the exception of $116,000 certificates issued to the Commissioners of the Agricultural College under Act approved June 13, 1895, the State is now clear from debt, and has been since Jan. 1, 1902. At previous dates the debt was:

Nov. 1, 1901	$71,000	Nov. 1, 1895	$660,400
Nov. 1, 1899	71,000	Nov. 1, 1894	735,400
Nov. 1, 1898	194,000	Nov. 1, 1880	1,996,300
Nov. 1, 1897	394,000	Nov. 1, 1866	3,395,200
Nov. 1, 1896	593,400

On Nov. 1, 1902, the cash balance on hand in the State Fund was $2,744,718 26; this fund also held on the same date 1,887 shares (par value $188,700), of the joint stock of the Delaware & Raritan Canal and Camden & Amboy Railroad and Transportation companies. The State School Fund on Nov. 1, 1902, held securities to the amount of $3,839,692 21.

ASSESSED VALUATION.—The assessed valuation, etc., has been

1902	$952,560,540	1896	$794,428,048	1884	$554,828,114
1901	918,418,741	1894	774,398,332	1882	534,917,876
1900	891,237,286	1892	742,759,082	1880	518,617,518
1899	864,516,527	1890	649,979,700	1878	531,851,849
1898	844,354,193	1888	603,676,953	1876	596,833,707
1897	812,609,090	1886	573,256,303	1874	619,057,903

In addition to the above the valuation of railroad and canal property in 1899 was $222,216,534, in 1900 $219,656,014, in 1901 $219,934,579 and in 1902 $223,461,784. No general tax is imposed in New Jersey, the State deriving its revenue from other sources.

DEBT LIMITATIONS.—The provisions of law limiting and regulating the debt-making power in New Jersey will be better understood and the information will be made more serviceable to the investor if arranged in accordance with the civil divisions to which the provisions apply.

(1) THE STATE is restricted as to its debt-making power by the State Constitution. In Article IV, Section VI, paragraphs 3 and 4, the whole subject is disposed of. The third paragraph forbids a loan of the State's credit, and the fourth paragraph forbids the creation of debt. These provisions are as follows.

3. The credit of the State shall not be directly or indirectly loaned in any case.

4. The Legislature shall not in any manner create any debt or debts, liability or liabilities of the State, which shall singly or in the aggregate with any previous debts or liabilities at any time exceed one hundred thousand dollars, except for purposes of war, or to repel invasion, or to suppress insurrection, unless the same shall be authorized by a law for some single object of work, to be distinctly specified therein; which law shall provide the ways and means, exclusive of loans, to pay the interest of such debt or liability as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal of such debt or liability within thirty-five years from the time of the contracting thereof, and shall be irrepealable until such debt or liability and the interest thereon are fully paid and discharged; and no such law shall take effect until it shall, at a general election, have been submitted to the people, and have received the sanction of a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election; and all money to be raised by the authority of such law shall be applied only to the specific object stated therein, and to the payment of the debt thereby created. This section shall not be construed to refer to any money that has been, or may be, deposited with this State by the Government of the United States.

According to the foregoing (4th paragraph), the power of the State for making debt is limited to $100,000, except (1) for purposes of war etc., and (2) when the authorization is for some single object of work specified therein, etc. In the latter case the mode of procedure is, as will be seen, given in the same paragraph of the Constitution.

(2) CITIES, COUNTIES, TOWNS, Etc., are also restricted in the making of certain kinds of debt by Article I, paragraphs 19 and 20, of the Constitution. We give the paragraph in full.

19. No county, city, borough, town, township or village shall hereafter give any money or property, or loan its money or credit, to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation, or become security for or be directly or indirectly the owner of any stock or bonds of any association or corporation.

20. No donation of land or appropriation of money shall be made by the State or any municipal corporation to or for the use of any society, association or corporation whatever.

It will be noted that the above prohibition relates to the giving of money, property or credit of cities, &c., to individuals, associations, or corporations, &c., and that the prohibition is absolute, forbidding the doing of such acts in any form, shape or manner. There is one other restriction of the State Constitution, and that is found in Article IV.

Section VII., paragraph 11, which forbids the Legislature passing any special laws "regulating the internal affairs of towns and counties"; in this and in all other cases in which according to the judgment of the Legislature general laws are feasible, the Constitution states that general laws must be provided.

In compliance with this last provision the Legislature has passed many general laws covering bonded indebtedness of cities, towns, etc. They are so numerous they cannot be cited here. We would refer the reader to the Revised Statutes of New Jersey published in 1896 under the heading "Municipal Bonds" pages 693 to 716 both inclusive; and also to the same heading ("Municipal Bonds") pages 2220, etc.

TAX EXEMPTION.—The State of New Jersey passed in 1893 a general statute which exempts from taxation the bonds, securities and other evidences of indebtedness of municipal corporations; the provision covers not only the bonds, etc., to be hereafter issued, but those as well that have been heretofore issued. It is a sweeping statute, and one which is of decided interest to the holders of the municipal securities of the State. The full text of it may be found in the STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT for October, 1898, page 58.

POPULATION OF STATE.—Population has been as follows.

1890	1,444,933	1850	489,555	1810	245,562

SAVINGS BANKS' INVESTMENTS—POWERS AND RESTRICTIONS.—The last general savings bank law of New Jersey was passed in 1876. Since then the legislative tendency in the matter of investments has been in the direction of allowing the management of these institutions a wider choice and a larger discretion. In 1878 the limits of the 1876 law were broadened in several particulars by a new act of two sections, the first taking the place of section 26 of the act o 1876. In 1886 still another law was passed in place of the first section of the law of 1878. Again in 1889 an act was passed extending materially the provisions of section two of the law of 1878, which covered the same subject matter contained in section 29 of the original law of 1876, and thereby section 26 of the law of 1876 was superseded by the law of 1886, and section 29 was superseded by the law of 1889. In 1901 Section two was further amended in the way specified below. In 1896 a supplement approved March 30, 1896 (Chapter 139, laws of 1896) to the law of 1876, making school district bonds an authorized investment, went into effect. In 1897 an act was passed (approved April 9) authorizing investments in bonds issued by commissioners appointed by the Supreme Court of the State. In 1899 a further supplement extending the permissible line of municipal investments so as to include the bonds of townships and boroughs was approved March 24. An attempt to add such securities to the list was made in 1898, but the measure then failed to receive the approval of the Governor. The 1899 law is as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall be lawful for any savings bank in this State to invest its funds in the bonds of any city, county, town or township of this State issued pursuant to the authority of any law of this State, or in the bonds of any borough or village or school district of this State issued pursuant to the authority of any law of this State; provided, such borough, village or school district shall not, within the ten years next preceding, have defaulted in the payment of any part of either principal or interest of any legal debt or obligation thereof; and provided further, that the total indebtedness of any such borough or village does not exceed ten per centum of its assessed valuation, and such school district bonds are by law charged upon all the property of the inhabitants of such district, or in any interest-bearing obligation (other than obligations commonly known as improvement certificates) issued by the city, county, town, township, borough or village in which such bank or institution is situated.

The following is the law of 1897 (approved April 9, 1897):

"Sec. 1. It shall be lawful for any bank, trust company, savings bank or savings institution * * * incorporated under the laws of this State, to invest moneys belonging to or deposited with any such companies in any bonds authorized by the laws of this State to be issued by any commission appointed by the Supreme Court of this State by virtue of any law of this State."

We omit the law of 1896 with reference to school district bonds because its provisions are included in the laws of 1899, quoted above.

Next we give the leading provisions of the general law as to investments.

SECTION 1. That the first section of the act of which this is a supplement be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

That it shall not be lawful, from and after the passage of this act, for any savings bank or other savings institution, whether chartered or incorporated under a general or special act of the legislature of this State, and any provision contained in the charter, or any supplement thereto, of such savings bank or savings institution to the contrary, to invest the moneys deposited with the same in any manner, except as follows, to wit:

I. In the stocks or bonds or interest-bearing notes or obligations of the United States, or those for which the faith of the United States is distinctly pledged to provide for the payment of the principal and interest thereof;

II. In the interest-bearing bonds of this State;

III. In the bonds of any State in the Union that has not, within ten years previous to making such investment by any such bank or institution, defaulted in the payment of any part of either principal or interest of any debt authorized by any legislature of such State to be contracted.

IV. In the stocks or bonds of any city, town, county or village of this State, issued pursuant to the authority of any law of this State, or of the cities of New York, Brooklyn and Philadelphia, or in any interest-bearing obligations (other than those commonly known as improvement certificates) issued by the city, town or borough in which such bank or institution shall be situated; (See below for provision including the bonds of certain cities and counties of any State in the U. S).

V. In bonds secured by mortgages which shall be a first lien on real estate situate in this State, and worth at least double the amount loaned thereon, but not to exceed eighty per centum of the whole deposits shall be so loaned or invested; but in case the loan is on unimproved or unproductive real estate, the amount loaned thereon shall not be more than thirty per centum of its actual value; and no investment in any bond and mortgage shall be made by any savings bank, except upon the report of a committee of at least three of the managers, directors or trustees of any such bank or institution, and a majority of which committee shall certify to the value of the premises mortgaged, or to be mortgaged, according to their best judgment; such report shall be filed and preserved among the records of the institution;

VI. In real estate strictly in accordance with the following provisions.

We do not reprint the real estate provisions, as they cover a matter not germane to our present subject. It is sufficient to say that they are two in number, marked (a) and (b), and may be summarized as below:

(a) authorizes the holding of a plot for erection of a banking building or buildings, portions of which may be rented, but the cost of lot and buildings must not exceed 50% of the net surplus of the corporation;

(b) all purchases under foreclosure sales upon mortgages owned by the corporation or sales under judgments or decrees obtained for debts due, etc.; and all such real estate must be sold within five years unless, on application to the State Board having supervision of Savings Banks, time shall be extended.

But the character of permissible investments was further greatly enlarged by the law of 1886, which is as follows:

SECTION 1. That it shall be lawful for any savings bank or savings institution, incorporated under any law of this State, to invest moneys deposited with it in the bonds of any city or county of any State of the United States of America, which have been or may be issued pursuant to the authority of any law of any such State; provided, no such city or county has, within ten years previous to making such investment by any such savings bank or savings institution of this State, defaulted in the payment of any part of either principal or interest of any debt authorized by law of such State to be contracted; and provided, further, that the total indebtedness of any such city or county is limited by law to ten percentum of its assessed valuation.

By another Act the banks also have the right to invest in railroad bonds under certain restrictions. The authorization was given by Section 2 of an Act approved February 22, 1888. Subsequently (April 27, 1888,) this Section 2 was repealed. On March 27, 1889, however, it was again re-enacted. The section is as follows:

SECTION 2. That it shall be lawful for any savings bank in this State to invest its funds in first mortgage bonds of any railroad company which has paid dividends of not less than four per centum per annum regularly, on their entire capital stock, for a period of not less than five years next previous to the purchase of such bonds, or in any consolidated mortgage bonds of any such company authorized to be issued to retire the entire bonded debt of such company.

The other law referred to above passed in 1889 amending section 2 of the law of 1878 is as below. It relates to loans on collaterals. As noted above, a slight but very important alteration in the phraseology of this section was made by a law approved March 22, 1901, and which forms chapter 148 of the laws of 1901. The new words introduced are indicated by brackets [ ] below.

SECTION 2. Hereafter it shall not be lawful for any saving institution in this State to loan the money on deposit with the same, or any part thereof, upon notes, bills of exchange or drafts, excepting upon the additional pledge of collateral security or securities, which collateral security or securities shall be of the same nature and character as those in which the money deposited may be invested as directed in the first section of this Act, or the capital stocks of national and State banks, or [the capital stock or bonds of] other corporations of this State, which have not defaulted in the payment of interest [or] dividends within two years next preceding the time of such loan, and then only to the extent of eighty per centum of the market value of such collaterals; provided, that the total amount of such loans shall not exceed fifteen per centum of the total deposits held by such institution.

In addition to the foregoing (according to section 27 of the general law of 1876) the managers can keep on hand or on deposit in any bank in the State, or in any trust or safe deposit company in New Jersey, New York or Pennsylvania, an available fund of not exceeding ten per cent of the whole amount of deposits with such corporation, or loan the same on pledge of the securities named in the first section cited above. Also (according to section 28 of the general law of 1876) they can deposit temporarily in banks the excess of daily receipts over payments until such time as they may be judiciously invested.

JERSEY CITY.—MARK M. FAGAN, Mayor. GEORGE R. HOUGH, Comptroller.

Jersey City formerly suffered greatly from difficulty in collecting taxes and assessments. Under the Martin Act, however, passed some years ago by the Legislature, arrears of taxes are made liens on the property, and if not paid within three years the property can be sold to satisfy them. The city has also succeeded in adjusting the taxes with the railroads, and the latter now pay into the treasury about $225,000 annually. On Feb. 13, 1900, the citizens authorized the purchase of a water plant (now building) for the sum of $7,595,000. V. 70, p. 344. A contract was signed early in April, 1902, whereby Patrick H. Flynn was given until Dec. 25, 1903, to finish the water works, the city agreeing to advance $3,280,000 on his contract. V. 74, p. 730. Bonds to the amount of $500,000 have been offered several times, but none sold up to April 1, 1902. The city in Aug., 1902, negotiated a temporary loan for that amount, to be retired when market conditions permit of the sale of the bonds at a satisfactory price. Jersey City is in Hudson County.

RAHWAY.—CHAS. B. HOLMES, Mayor. FRANK H. BLISS, Treasurer.

This city, of Union County, was declared bankrupt in 1882, and a compromise of the debt exclusive of the water debt ($185,000) was forthwith agreed to with most of the leading creditors at 35 cents on the dollar, the debt, exclusive of water debt, then amounting to about $1,200,000. This settlement was completed in 1894, and interest is now paid promptly on the new bonds. The water bonds were renewed in 1891 at 4 per cent, an agreement having been made in 1890 by which all accrued interest at 7 per cent was adjusted at the 35 per cent rate. Interest on the water bonds is also promptly paid.

The above does not include valuation of railroad property. The State makes no general tax. Income is derived from tax on capital stock on money at interest, on collateral inheritances, on corporate loans, on bonus on charters, etc., etc.

DEBT LIMITATION—In Pennsylvania the limit to the indebtedness of the State, and to the indebtedness of the cities and minor civil organizations in the State, is fixed by the State Constitution.

1. State indebtedness.—With regard to the State, the regulations controlling and governing debt creation, payment, &c., are found in Sections 4, 5, 6, 11, 12, 13 and 14 of Article IX of the Constitution, and are as follows.

ARTICLE IX, Sec. 4. No debt shall be created by, or on behalf of, the State except to supply casual deficiencies of revenue, repel invasions, suppress insurrection, defend the State in war, or to pay existing debt; and the debt created to supply deficiencies in revenue shall never exceed, in the aggregate at any one time, one million of dollars.

SECTION 5. All laws authorizing the borrowing of money by, and on behalf of, the State shall specify the purpose for which the money is to be used, and the money so borrowed shall be used for the purpose specified and no other.

SECTION 6. The credit of the Commonwealth shall not be pledged or loaned to any individual, company, corporation or association, nor shall the Commonwealth become a joint-owner or stockholder in any company, association or corporation.

SECTION 11. To provide for the payment of the present State debt, and any additional debt contracted as aforesaid, the General Assembly shall continue and maintain the sinking fund sufficient to pay the accruing interest on such debt, and annually to reduce the principal thereof by a sum not less than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; the said sinking fund shall consist of the proceeds of the sales of the public works, or any part thereof, and of the income or proceeds of the sale of any stocks owned by the Commonwealth, together with other funds and resources that may be designated by law, and shall be increased from time to time by assigning to it any part of the taxes or other revenue of the State not required for the ordinary and current expenses of government, and unless in case of war, invasion or insurrection, no part of the said sinking fund shall be used or applied otherwise than in the extinguishment of the public debt.

SECTION 12. The moneys of the State, over and above the necessary reserve, shall be used in the payment of the debt of the State, either directly or through the sinking fund, and the moneys of the sinking fund shall never be invested in or loaned upon the security of anything except the bonds of the United States or of this State.

SECTION 13. The moneys held as necessary reserve shall be limited by law to the amount required for current expenses, and shall be secured and kept as may be provided by law. Monthly statements shall be published, showing the amount of such moneys, where the same are deposited, and how secured.

SECTION 14. The making of profit out of the public moneys, or using the same for any purpose not authorized by law, by any officer of the State, or member or officer of the General Assembly, shall be a misdemeanor, and shall be punished as may be provided by law; but part of such punishment shall be disqualification to hold office for a period of not less than five years.

State loans in Pennsylvania, whether created for original indebtedness or authorized to fund existing indebtedness, are usually negotiated through the Governor and Commissioners of the sinking fund.

The last act of the Pennsylvania Legislature authorizing a public loan was the act of June 8, 1881, when a thirty-year loan was effected to fund existing indebtedness at a lower rate of interest.

The earliest date at which the last of the existing indebtedness of Pennsylvania will mature is February 1, 1912, and, under existing arrangements the accumulations in the sinking fund will at that time pay the total State indebtedness.

(2) County and Municipal Indebtedness.—Under the laws of Pennsylvania the power to create county loans is in the Board of County Commissioners, which consists in each county of three persons, elected tri-ennially under the minority system of voting, by which the minority party in each County usually has one member of the Board.

In cities and boroughs the power to create indebtedness is vested in councils, municipal debts being created by ordinance.

The creation of county, city and other municipal indebtedness is subject to the following constitutional limitations.

ARTICLE IX, Sec. 7. The General Assembly shall not authorize any county, city, borough, township or incorporated district to become a stockholder in any company, association or corporation, or to obtain or appropriate money for, or to loan its credit to, any corporation, association, institution or individual.

SECTION 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate at any one time, upon such valuation.

SECTION 9. The Commonwealth shall not assume the debt, or any part thereof, of any city, county, borough or township, unless such debt shall have been contracted to enable the State to repeal invasion, suppress domestic insurrection, defend itself in time of war, or to assist the State in the discharge of any portion of its present indebtedness.

SECTION 10. Any county, township, school district or other municipality incurring any indebtedness shall, at or before the time of so doing, provide for the collection of an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest, and also the principal thereof within thirty years.

(3) Townships and School Districts.—In the various school districts of the State the school directors have the power to create loans, subject to the limitations of Section 10 above quoted, to provide for the redemption of the same within thirty years.

In townships, the only authority, except that of the school directors to borrow money, is in the road supervisors, who have no power to create bonded indebtedness, but simply to make a temporary loan for necessary expenses, which must be provided for by an assessment of sufficient township tax rate, known as road tax.

POPULATION OF STATE.—The population of Pennsylvania has been reported as follows in the years named

1900	6,302,115	1860	2,906,215	1820	1,049,458
1890	5,258,014	1850	2,311,786	1810	810,091

SAVINGS BANKS INVESTMENTS—POWERS AND RESTRICTIONS.—Philadelphia is, we believe, entitled to the distinction of starting the first savings institution in the United States. The name this association bore was the "Philadelphia Savings Fund Society," and it still exists, bearing the same name. Originally the bank was not incorporated, but was a voluntary organization, such societies in Great Britain being at that time of a like character. The date of the organization was November 27, 1816, and the bank was opened for business December 2, 1816. Mr. Hutchinson, who, now holds the office of President, states that the oldest ledger of the company goes back to the time of opening, and shows a deposit on that day (December 2, 1816) of five dollars. The company was not incorporated until February 25, 1819.

It is surprising that Pennsylvania, although engaged in such an early venture in the department of savings institutions, should have made so little progress in the same department since. Indeed, the second organization does not bear date until 1847, and we think there had only been 10 mutual savings institutions organized in the whole State from 1816 down to the early part of 1890. We may assume, however that this slow development was in no measure due to a lack of desire for savings banks on the part of the people of that common wealth. That such institutions were sought and needed is sufficiently evident from the fact that nine of the ten companies referred to above reported in 1890 that they held $63,957,341 of deposits. In 1889 a general law, facilitating the incorporation of savings banks, was passed by the Legislature. Since then there has been a small addition to the number of institutions, the total doing business in the State in November, 1902, being 15, with deposits aggregating $122,328,470 24.

The provisions of the special charters are all liberal as to investments. A law passed in 1885, and a supplement of the same passed in 1889, authorizing the extension for twenty years of special charters, contains the following.

"Provided also, that no * * * Savings Institution or Savings Bank having no capital stock, renewing or extending its charter, corporate rights and franchises, under the provisions of this act, shall thereafter be allowed the privileges of a bank of discount, nor be allowed to loan any money received on deposit, EXCEPT first mortgage or lien upon real estate within this commonwealth, upon the bonds or securities of the United States or of this State, or upon county, city, borough, township or school bonds of any county, city, borough, township or school district within this commonwealth, or any other good and valid securities."

Authority to loan on any "good and valid security "appears to confer about as broad a discretion upon the managers as could be expressed in a statute.

In 1897 an Act was passed allowing savings institutions and savings banks chartered under special acts to invest in Pennsylvania county and municipal bonds notwithstanding any provisions of their charters. The law follows:

CHAPTER 77, LAWS OF 1897.—From and after the passage of this Act all provident institutions, savings institutions and savings banks, chartered under special acts of this Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, may, notwithstanding any provisions of their charter, loan the moneys received by them on deposit upon the bonds of any county, city, borough, township or school district within this Commonwealth, issued pursuant to the authority of any law of this Commonwealth for the payment of which the faith and credit of the municipality issuing them are pledged.

It was not until 1889, as already stated, that a general law facilitating the organization of savings institutions was passed. That law of 1889 is indeed well adapted not only for facilitating, but for stimulating, the growth of the system. Its influence in the latter direction would seem to be assured under the liberality of the provisions respecting investments. The following is section 17, which contains the investment limitations; we would especially direct attention to subdivision four of this section:

SECTION 17.—It shall be lawful for the trustees of any savings bank to invest money deposited therein only as follows:

(1.) In the stocks or bonds or interest-bearing notes or the obligations of the United States, or those for which the faith of the United States is pledged to provide for the payment of the interest and the principal.

(2) In the stocks or bonds of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania bearing interest.

(3) In the stocks or bonds of any State in the Union that has not within ten years previous to making such investments, by such corporation, defaulted in the payment of any part of either principal or interest of any debt authorized by any Legislature of such State to be contracted.

(4) In the stocks or bonds of any city, county, town or village of any State of the United States, issued pursuant to the authority of any law of the State, or in any interest-bearing obligations issued by the city or county in which such bank shall be situated.

(5) In bonds and mortgages on unincumbered, improved real estate, situated in this State.

It will be noted that according to the foregoing (sub-division four), Pennsylvania savings banks are allowed to invest their deposits in the bonds and stocks of any city, county town or village in any of the United States. Furthermore, by the fifth subdivision bonds and mortgages are left to the discretion of the trustees in all purchases, except that they must be first mortgages on improved real estate in Pennsylvania. The next section (18) relates to the temporary deposit of funds in banks and trust companies. It makes it lawful to deposit temporarily in banks or trust companies the excess of current daily receipts over the payments until such time as the same can be judiciously invested in the securities named above.

PHILADELPHIA.—JOHN WEAVER, Mayor. JOHN M. WALTON, Comptrol'r.

Philadelphia, co-extensive with the county of the same name, is the third city of the United States, has an area of over 130 square miles, and includes a number of places which have almost the character of separate towns. The county is under city control and has no separate debt. In the following table the various issues of bonds under the general heads, Taxed City Loan and Untaxed City Loan, are given in the order of their dates of maturity.

The long-continued litigation over the issuance of the $11,200,000 bonds voted Nov. 7, 1897, was concluded May 15, 1899, by a decision of the Supreme Court confirming their validity. One-half the bonds was issued July, 1899, $2,800,000 in July, 1900, and $1,400,000 in July, 1902.

HISTORY OF DEBT.—The historical details of Delaware's State debt from 1865 to 1894 will be found in the STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April, 1894, page 72. The present extent and condition of the debt and resources of the State are given below, showing that Delaware now holds good assets more than equaling its liabilities.

LOANS— NAME AND PURPOSE.	Interest.—Rate	Interest.—Payable.	Principal, When Due.	Principal, Outstand'g.

Subject to call after 1922.

INTEREST.—On a part of the bonds of series "B" and of the Refunding bonds of 1897 is payable at the Philadelphia National Bank in Philadelphia.

TOTAL DEBT, Etc.—The total liabilities on Oct. 1, 1902, were $769,750. The assets on Oct. 1 1902, were $1,128,445; assets in excess of liabilities $283,695. The total assets include bank stocks $483,792; mortgages on railroads $385,000, and bonds, $161,750.

ASSESSED VALUATION.—The total assessed valuation of the State in 1902 was $69,351,696; in 1897 it was $77,632,079. No tax is levied for general State purposes.

DEBT LIMITATION.—Neither the new Constitution (adopted June 4, 1897,) nor the old Constitution nor the State statutes contain any general provisions authorizing bond issues or limiting the debt-making power, except that the new Constitution—

(1) Forbids the State (Article 8, Sec. 3) to borrow money or create debt, "but pursuant to an Act of the General Assembly passed with the concurrence of three-fourths of all the members elected to each House, except to supply casual deficiencies, repel invasion, suppress insurrections, defend the State in war or pay existing debts."

(2) Forbids any county, city, town or other municipality (Article 8, Sec. 8) to "lend its credit or appropriate money to, or assume the debt of, or become a shareholder or joint owner in, or with, any private corporation or any person or company whatever."

(3) Forbids any corporation (Article 9, Sec. 1) to be created, etc., by special act, "but only by or under general law"; "but the foregoing provisions shall not apply to municipal corporations, banks," etc.

The above indicates that the authority as regards municipalities [except as already specified in number (2)] rests with the General Assembly, and the General Assembly always passes special acts to provide for special occasions and needs.

DEBT LIMITATION.—There is nothing in the Constitution of Maryland limiting the power of the Legislature to authorize bond issues ither by the State or by its municipalities, except that in Section 34, Article 3, we find that "the credit of the State shall not in any manner be given, or loaned to, or in aid of any individual association or corporation; nor shall the General Assembly have the power in any mode to involve the State in the construction of works of internal improvement, nor in granting any aid thereto, which shall involve the faith or credit of the State." No general limit for cities and towns has been fixed by the Legislature, nor is there any general authorization to be found in the statutes under which cities and towns can issue bonds. This power is lodged in the Legislature, and is delegated to the municipalities from time to time for specific purposes as the occasion may arise. It is necessary, therefore, for the investor to study the law in each case on this as well as on other points affecting the loan with respect to which he may need information.

POPULATION OF STATE.—

1900.....	1,188,044	1860.....	687,049	1820.....	407,350
1890.....	1,042,390	1850.....	583,034	1810.....	380,546

1870.....	780,894	1830.....	447,040	1790.....	319,728

Of the total population in 1880 22·49 per cent was colored. in 1890 20·92 per cent and in 1900 19·8 per cent. In number, blacks were 165,091 in 1850; 171,131 in 1860; 175,391 in 1870; 210,230 in 1880; 218,004 in 1890 and 235,064 in 1·00.

SAVINGS BANKS INVESTMENTS.—There are in this State general banking laws under which savings banks may be organized, and yet we notice that as late as 1890 a special charter was granted incorporating the Germania Sav. Bank of Baltimore. However, in both the general and special laws there appears to be a pretty general authority granted for investing the deposits. The general law states that—

Any savings institution incorporated under this article shall be capable of receiving from any person or persons, or bodies corporate or politic, any deposit of money which shall be invested or loaned out on good security in the discretion of the directors; provided that no part of the funds of said corporation shall be loaned to any officer or director of such corporation.

In the special law passed in 1890, which we have referred to above, the power to loan the deposits is made a little more definite. The section referring to that subject states that the "corporation shall have "power to borrow money, receive money on deposit, loan money 'taking such security therefor, either real or personal, as the Board of 'Directors may deem sufficient; provided that no part of the funds of "said corporation shall be loaned to an officer or director thereof."

We cannot discover any marked difference in the two provisions cited, except that the enactment in the case of the new Baltimore bank states distinctly that the security can be either real or personal. But as much as that would, we think, be assumed as authorized under the general provision, since no limit is made and loaning on bond and mortgage is always a legitimate part of the business of savings banks.

The city's holdings in the Western Maryland were sold early in May, 1902, for $8,751,370 45. V. 74, p 999. The disposition made of this sum was fully given in V. 75, p. 202—$4,283,000 being deposited with several local banks and trust companies, for a fixed period of 25 years at 3¼ per cent interest to meet the Western Maryland bonds for the payment of which the city is responsible. The remainder was deposited at 3½ per cent, subject to withdrawal on 30 days' notice. The sale of this stock accounts for the great increase in 1902 in sinking fund assets.

Against the net debt of $22,257,810 on Dec. 31, 1902, the city reports productive assets amounting to $13,502,519; $12,500,000 of this representing the cash price of the water works.

On Dec. 31, 1902, besides the above assets, the city held unproductive assets to the amount of $3,750,000, being stock of the Valley Railroad Co. and the new court house. The value of city property was $11,500,000.

INTEREST CHARGE.—Of total debt Dec., 1902, ($39,850,183) interest was payable from taxation on only $25,983,300.

(INCLUD'G THE LATE CORPORATION OF WASHINGTON.)

On July 1, 1878, the duties of the Sinking Fund Commissioners of the District of Columbia were transferred to the Treasurer of the United States, and since that date Congress has appropriated annually a sum sufficient to pay not only the interest on the District's bonds but also, it is believed, sufficient to extinguish the entire debt of the District upon the maturity of the 3·65 per cent loan, in 1924. Bonds are tax exempt.

The State tax (per $1,000) for 1902 was $1·35 and $2·89 for 1901.

DEBT LIMITATION.—Ohio has very carefully guarded the debt-making power of the State. This could not be said while the Constitution of 1802 was in force; for under that instrument it was competent for the Legislature to construct works of internal improvement on behalf of the State, or to aid in their construction by subscribing to the capital stock of corporations created for that purpose, or to authorize in other ways the creation of debt in unlimited amounts. But since the adoption of the Constitution of 1851 the whole situation in these particulars has changed, the legislative power with respect to the State having been limited. The same is in large measure true also of the municipalities.

FIRST, As to the State's power to contract debt, this is regulated under the first five sections of article 8 of the Constitution. Section 1 limits the power to the supply of "casual deficits in revenues or to meet expenses not otherwise provided for," but in the aggregate debts for even the purposes named cannot exceed $750,000. Section 2 contains an exception to the foregoing; it grants the power to contract debt in case of invasion, of insurrection, of war or of the redemption of the then existing indebtedness. Section 3 reaffirms the limit, except as above specified. Section 4 forbids the loaning of the State credit. Section 5 further forbids the assumption of debts by States. We insert these five sections in full.

SECTION 1. [Debt limited to seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars]. The State may contract debts to supply casual deficits or failures in revenues or to meet expenses not otherwise provided for; but the aggregate amount of such debts direct and contingent whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the General Assembly, or at different periods of time, shall never exceed seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars; and the money arising from the creation of such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained or to re-pay the debts so contracted and to no other purpose whatever.

SECTION 2. [Additional and for what purpose.] In addition to the above limited power the State may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the State in war, or to redeem the present outstanding indebtedness of the State; but the money arising from the contracting of such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to re-pay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever; and all debts incurred to redeem the present outstanding indebtedness of the State shall be so contracted as to be payable by the sinking fund hereinafter provided for as the same shall accumulate.

SECTION 3. [The State to create no other debt.] Except the debts above specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this article, no debt whatever shall hereafter be created by or on behalf of the State.

SECTION 4. [Credit of State; the State shall not become joint owner or stockholder.] The credit of the State shall not in any manner be given or loaned to or in aid of any individual association or corporation whatever; nor shall the State ever hereafter become a joint owner or stockholder in any company or association in this State or elsewhere formed for any purpose whatever.

SECTION 5. [No assumption of debts by the State.] The State shall never assume the debts of any county, city, town or township, or of any corporation whatever, unless such debt shall have been created to repel invasion, suppress insurrection or defend the State in war.

The foregoing sections complete the limitation as to State debt and credit. Sections 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 of Article 8 cover the matter of sinking funds referred to in Section 2 above. But they need not be published here.

SECOND, As to Cities, Towns, Counties, &c., so far as the Constitution affects the power of the Legislature to authorize these municipalities to create debt, the limitations are found in section 6 of article 8 and in sections 1, 2 and 6 of article 13. (1) Section 6 of article 8 forbids the General Assembly to authorize cities, &c., to become stockholders in or to raise money or loan credit to aid corporations, &c. (2) Sections 1 and 2 of article 13 forbid the passing of special acts and require general acts for conferring corporate powers. (3) Section 6 of article 13 provides that the General Assembly make provision for the organization of cities, &c., by general laws and restrict their debt-making power. These sections are as follows:

ARTICLE 8, Section 6. [Counties, cities, towns or townships not authorized to become stockholders, &c.] The General Assembly shall never authorize any county, city, town or township, by vote of its citizens or otherwise, to become a stockholder in any joint stock company, corporation or association whatever; or to raise money for, or loan its credit to, or in aid of, any such company, corporation or association.

ARTICLE 13, Section 1. [Corporate powers]. The General Assembly shall pass no special act conferring corporate powers.

Section 2. [Corporations how formed]. Corporations may be formed under general laws; but all such laws may from time to time be altered or repealed.

Section 6. [Organization of cities, &c.] The General Assembly shall provide for the organization of cities and incorporated villages by general laws and restrict their power of taxation, assessment, borrowing money, contracting debts and loaning their credit, so as to prevent the abuse of such power.

One at first sight would infer from section 6 article 8 above cited that cities could not subscribe to the stock of or loan money to railroads, as railroads are corporations and joint-stock companies. That, however, is not a correct conclusion, as was decided in the case of Walker vs. The City of Cincinnati, a case which arose under an act of the General Assembly of Ohio entitled "An Act relating to cities of the first class," authorizing any such city to construct a line of railroad therefrom to any other terminus in that State or in any other State. In pursuance of the authority that act purports to give, Cincinnati undertook to build the Cincinnati Southern Railroad. To test the legality of that proceeding this action was brought. The Court's opinion is very full and explicit, the conclusion being that from "the language "of the section it is quite evident that it was not intended to prohibit "the construction of railroads nor indeed to prohibit any species of "public improvements. The section contains no direct reference to "railroads nor to any other special classes of improvements or enter- "prises. The inhibitions are directed only against a particular manner "or means by which under the Constitution of 1802 many public im- "provements had been accomplished."

In compliance with section 6, article 13 (cited above), which provides for the organization of cities, etc., by general law, the Legislature made an elaborate classification of municipal corporations, which was in existence for years. First they were divided into cities, villages and hamlets. Then cities were divided into two classes, the first class being subdivided into three grades and the second class being subdivided into four grades, the grade being determined by population according to the last Federal Census. In addition many special laws found their way on to the statute books, nominally general in their scope, but really so worded as to apply to only one city. In June, 1902, however, the State Supreme Court handed down several decisions declaring such laws special legislation and therefore unconstitutional. The decisions were considered to be of such broad application that the Governor called an extra session of the Legislature for the purpose of framing a new general municipal code. The extra session convened Aug 25 and after a session of nearly two months passed a new "municipal code"—a document too lengthy to quote in these columns. We would refer our readers, therefore, to pages 994 and 995 of the CHRONICLE, Nov. 1, 1902, wherein will be found at length the more salient points of this important measure.

It remains to be said that at the regular session of the Legislature in 1902 an Act popularly known as the "Longworth Omnibus bill," was passed and subsequently upheld by the State Supreme Court. This Act (which will be found in full in V. 74, p. 1329) amends Sections 2835, 2836 and 2837 Revised Statutes of Ohio, relating to the issuance of bonds by cities, villages and other municipal corporations. Under the new law the municipal boards of legislation, councils, etc., may by two-thirds vote issue bonds for certain specified purposes to the extent of 1% of the assessed valuation yearly (but not exceeding 4% in the aggregate) without submitting the question to a vote of the people. Bonds issued under this Act in excess of 1% in any one year, or in excess of 4% in the aggregate, must first be submitted to a vote of the people and carried by two-thirds of those voting on the proposition, but not more than 8% in the aggregate can be authorized in any event. The law passed at the extra session re-affirms the provision of this statute, which therefore remains in full effect.

CINCINNATI.—{JULIUS FLEISCHMANN, Mayor. PAUL M. MILLIKIN, Auditor. LOUIS CARROLL, Sec. S. F. Trustees.

Cincinnati is situated in Hamilton County.

In 1895 the villages of Avondale, Clifton, Linwood, Riverside and Westwood were annexed to Cincinnati and their indebtedness was assumed by that city. The Legislature of 1900 passed a bill providing for the annexation of a number of surrounding villages. The project, however, fell through. V. 71, p. 1060. In April, 1903, however, annexation elections will be held in villages of Hyde Park, Evanston, Bond Hill, St Bernard and Winton Place.

CITY PROPERTY.—The city owns the Cincinnati Southern Railroad. The rental received for the road was (under the old lease) $1,090,000 till 1901 and then $1,250,000 till 1906, when lease would have expired. A new lease was submitted to a vote of the people at the 1901 election and ratified. Under its terms the lease is extended to Oct. 12, 1966, at an annual rental of $1,050,000 until October 12, 1906, and for the 20 years following; $1,100,000 for the second period of 20 years and $1,200,000 for the remaining 20 years. The railroad company is also to pay the interest on $2,500,000 bonds to be issued for terminal facilities, as well as a sum annually in addition for a sinking fund. V. 72, p. 499; V. 73, p. 628. The legality of the lease was upheld in a decision handed down by the Superior Court on Feb. 6, 1902 (V. 74, p. 392), and affirmed upon appeal by the State Supreme Court. V. 74, p. 741. The water-works pays the interest and sinking fund on all water bonds.

Under the Ohio Statutes this village was limited to an 8-mill tax, which was found to be insufficient to pay the regular running city expenses as well as interest on its bonds. The coupons due Sept. 1, 1896, were therefore not paid. The court of last resort was appealed to and in 1901 rendered a decision that the bonds are legal and that the 8-mill limit of taxation may be exceeded for the payment of interest and principal on bonds. The village has since paid all past-due coupons in full and will, we are advised, promptly pay all future coupons at maturity.

DEBT LIMITATION.—In the present Constitution of Indiana, which went into effect November 1, 1851, superseding the Constitution adopted in 1816, there are explicit provisions limiting the power of both the State and its municipalities to contract debt.

FIRST, as to the State, Section 5 of article 10 provides that no debt except to meet casual deficits in revenue, to pay interest, to repel invasion &c. can be contracted. The section in full is subjoined.

Creation of Debt Forbidden.—No law shall authorize any debt to be contracted on behalf of the State except in the following cases: To meet casual deficits in the revenue; to pay interest on the State debt; to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or, if hostilities be threatened, provide for the public defense.

In the sixth section of the same article the last clause prohibits the assumption by the State of the debts of any municipality or corporation. The clause referred to reads as follows.

"Nor shall the General Assembly ever on behalf of the State assume the debts of any county, city, town or township, nor of any corporation whatever."

SECOND, as to municipalities, the provision contained in the Constitution seems to be equally clear and emphatic, and, as will be found, fixes the limit at 2 per cent of the valuation. It is article 13 of that instrument which relates to this subject, and we give the article in full below.

Limited—Excess Void.—No political or municipal corporation in this State shall ever become indebted in any manner or for any purpose to an amount in the aggregate exceeding two per centum on the valuation of the taxable property within such corporation, to be ascertained by the last assessment for State and County taxes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness; and all bonds or obligations in excess of such amount given by such corporation shall be void; Provided, That in time of war, foreign invasion, or other great public calamity, on petition of a majority of the property owners in number and value, within the limits of such corporation, the public authorities in their discretion may incur obligations necessary for the public protection and defense to such an amount as may be requested in such petition.

It should be said in connection with the above that several laws have been enacted since the foregoing constitutional limit was adopted (March 14 1881), and bonds have been issued by counties thereunder beyond the 2 per cent limit, for the construction of "free gravel, stone or other macadamized roads." Several such laws were passed at the 1899 session of the Legislature. But in the case of Strieb vs. Cox, Treas., 111 Ind., the Supreme Court of Indiana held that gravel road bonds are not properly indebtedness of the county—hence do not come within the inhibition of Section 13 of the Constitution. (See editorial in State and City Supplement for October, 1899, page 3.)

THIRD, counties (but no other kind of municipality) are prohibited from subscribing for any stock in a corporation unless paid for at time of such subscription. The section which covers this subject is section 6 of article 10, and is as follows.

Counties Cannot Take Stock. No county shall subscribe for stock in any incorporated company unless the same be paid for at the time of such subscription; nor shall any county loan its credit to any incorporated company, nor borrow money for the purpose of taking stock in any such company; nor shall the General Assembly ever on behalf of the State assume the debts of any county, city, town or township, nor of any corporation whatever.

The prohibition which this section contains applies, as already stated, only to counties. Consequently the Legislature was at liberty to authorize cities to subscribe to the stock of railroads, as it did by a general law passed in 1869 granting the power to subscribe to the stock of any railroad running into or through any city or near its corporate limits. Other laws of a somewhat similar character have been passed at other dates. We notice one law, too ((Section 5377 Burns's Annotated Statutes, revision 1901), which authorizes counties bordering on the State line, or any township or city situated in such county, to subscribe for railroad stock. In that law no attempt is made to endow counties with power to issue bonds for this purpose (thus obeying the mandate of the Constitution), though by the succeeding section (Section 5378) cities are given authority to issue such bonds.

COUNTIES are apparently restricted by statute to a lower than the Constitutional limit of 2 per cent in the matter of creating certain kinds of debt. For instance, Section 7834 of Burns's Annotated Statutes, 1901, authorizes any county to issue bonds when necessary to construct, complete or repair court house, jail or other county buildings, or to fund existing debt; in those cases county commissioners may borrow for that purpose not exceeding 1 per cent on assessed valuation and issue bonds therefor, provided that no second or subsequent loan shall be made or authorized so long as any former loan made under the provisions of the Act shall remain unpaid. From Section 7920 it appears, moreover, that whenever the aggregate indebtedneas, funded or otherwise, of any county having a voting population of over 20,000 amounts to or exceeds one per cent, it is not lawful to increase such indebtedness in any manner or form except only by temporary loans in anticipation of the revenue of the then current fiscal year and not exceeding two-thirds of the amount of the county tax duplicate of the preceding year.

Limit of one per cent may be exceeded in counties for funding purposes in certain cases where the aggregate indebtedness in 1879 exceeded one per cent (see Burns's Revised Statutes, 1901, Section 7918); also for temporary loans (see Burns's Revised Statutes, 1901, Section 7920).

Also (if the laws that have been passed are constitutional), the limit of 2 per cent may be exceeded for the purpose of making gravel roads (see above), the Supreme Court having decided that gravel road bonds are not properly an indebtedness of the county. By statute the limit for such bonds (Section 6910) is 4 per cent.

In addition to the foregoing, general statutes have been passed by the Legislature granting general powers to cities and towns to issue bonds for legitimate corporate purposes, subject, however, to the Constitutional limit of 2 per cent on valuation. But we have not the space to set out here the details, or the details of the other legislation applicable to cities of larger and smaller population, and covering specific purposes, such as water works, &c.

* For explanation as to the falling off of values in the year 1900 see letter of State Auditor in V. 74, p. 741.

Under a law passed Feb. 25, 1898, there will be a general assessment of real estate but once in every four years instead of annually; personal property will be listed every year. The law also provides that property shall be appraised at full value but assessed at only one-fifth of such value.

DEBT LIMITATION.—No State has developed a greater repugnance to the creating of debt than Illinois, if we may judge from the provisions of its present Constitution. We say developed, because this antagonism has apparently been progressive. Nothing of it is to be found in the Constitution of 1818. The Constitution of 1848 contains no reference to municipalities, but has in it stringent restrictions limiting to $50,000 the power of the Legislature to create State debt, except in case of war, invasion, etc., unless the law proposing the issue of bonds is submitted to a vote of the people. But turning to the Constitution of 1870 we find the whole subject of debt-making most thoroughly considered and its basis settled.

FIRST, as to the State, the provisions are not very unlike the provisions of the Constitution of 1848, except that as to the limit for casual deficits and failures of revenue, the aggregate which can be created is very properly raised to $250,000. But with that exception and with the further exception for the purpose of repelling invasion etc. no debt can be contracted unless the law is submitted to a vote of the people at a general election, which law must contain a provision for the payment of interest as it accrues, and previous notice of the election be given by publication for three months prior to such election. These last two restrictions as to interest and notice of election are only found in the 1870 Constitution. The sections which cover these matters are as follows; we omit the first portion of Section 18, of Article IV., which relates only to appropriations and payment of appropriations out of funds belonging to the State:

SECTION 18. * * * * * Provided, the State may, to meet casual deficits or failures in revenues, contract debts never to exceed in the aggregate $250,000, and moneys thus borrowed shall be applied to the purpose for which they were obtained, or to pay the debt thus created, and to no other purpose; and no other debt except for the purpose of repelling invasion, suppressing insurrection or defending the State in war (for payment of which the faith of the State shall be pledged), shall be contracted, unless the law authorizing the same shall at a general election have been submitted to the people, and have received a majority of the votes cast for members of the General Assembly at such election The General Assembly shall provide for the publication of said law for three months at least before the vote of the people shall be taken upon the same; and provision shall be made at the time for the payment of the interest annually as it shall accrue, by a tax levied for the purpose or from other sources of revenue; which law providing for the payment of such interest by such tax, shall be irrepealable until such debt be paid: And provided further, that the law levying the tax shall be submitted to the people with the law authorizing the debt to be contracted.

SECTION 20 The State shall never pay, assume or become responsible for the debts or liabilities of, or in any manner give, loan, or extend its credit to or in aid of any public or other corporation, association or individual.

SECOND, municipal indebtedness is regulated only in the Constitution of 1870. In that instrument the subject is dealt with in all its phases First is a provision in Article 8, Section 3, forbidding the General Assembly and every municipality from making any appropriation in aid of any sectarian purpose. Second is a "separate section" forbidding any such municipality from becoming a subscriber to the stock of any railroad, &c., or to loan its credit. Third is the broad and general provision Section 12, Article 9, which limits the indebtedness of all municipalities to 5 per cent "on the value of the taxable property therein," &c. We give these sections below:

ARTICLE 8, Section 3. Neither the General Assembly nor any county city, town, township, school district, or other public corporation, shall ever make any appropriation, or pay from any public fund whatever, anything in aid of any church or sectarian purpose, or to help support or sustain any school, academy, seminary, college, university, or other literary or scientific institution controlled by any church or sectarian denomination whatever; nor shall any grant or donation of land, money or other personal property ever be made by the State, or any such public corporation, to any church or for any sectarian purpose.

ARTICLE 9, Section 12. No county, city, township, school district or other municipal corporation shall be allowed to become indebted in any manner or for any purpose, to an amount, including existing indebtedness, in the aggregate exceeding five per centum on the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for State and county taxes, previous to the incurring of such indebtedness. Any county, city, school district or other municipal corporation incurring any indebtedness as aforesaid shall before, or at the time of doing so, provide for the collection of a direct annual tax sufficient to pay the interest on such debt as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same. This section shall not be construed to prevent any county, city, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, from issuing their bonds in compliance with any vote of the people which may have been had prior to the adoption of this Constitution in pursuance of any law providing therefor.

SEPARATE Sections. [Municipal subscriptions to railroads etc.] No county, city, town, township or other municipality shall ever become subscriber to the capital stock of any railroad or private corporation, or make donation to or loan its credit in aid of such corporation, provided, however, that the adoption of this article shall not be construed as affecting the right of any such municipality to make such subscriptions where the same have been authorized, under existing laws, by a vote of the people of such municipalities prior to such adoption.

The foregoing limitation to 5 per cent is general, as will be seen—that is, it applies to all municipalities. With this limitation preserved the Legislature has passed general laws authorizing the city council in cities and the board of trustees in villages to issue bonds for corporate purposes, for refunding and consolidating debt, for water works, etc.; and the county board of any county has been authorized by general statute to issue, when it deems it necessary, county bonds, after submitting the matter to the legal voters of the county at a general election, at which a majority vote is required as a prerequisite of the issue. Recently an attempt was made to limit "any county, city, township, school district or municipal corporation" in counties containing 125,000 or more inhabitants to 2½ per cent of the assessed value, but Jan. 12, 1900, the State Supreme Court ruled that this was an arbitrary and unnatural classification of municipalities which could not be sustained. See Vol. 70, page 242.

The matter of the amount of bonds that might be issued on the basis of the debt limitations given has been complicated in late years by changes in the method of assessing property. A letter of the State Auditor in V. 74, p. 741, throws some light on these changes.

WATER CERTIFICATES IN EXCESS OF DEBT LIMIT.—A law was passed in 1899 allowing cities bonded to their legal limit to issue (for the improvement of water-works) certificates against the earnings of the Water Department without regard to the bonded indebtedness. Several municipalities are understood to have taken advantage of this law. In the case of the City of Joliet, however, which attempted to issue bonds under this law, the matter was taken into the courts in a test suit, and an injunction granted by Judge Dibell, who held that the 5 per cent limit could not be exceeded.—V. 73, p. 94. This decision was confirmed by Supreme Court. V. 74, p. 491.

IMPROVEMENT BONDS.—There is a kind of improvement bond authorized in some cases which is made a special lien on the land benefited and to which the 5 per cent limit has no reference. We refer to cases which come under the law entitled "To divide cities and villages subject "to overflow into improvement districts." This statute provides that any such city or village or part thereof may be laid off into an improvement district for the purpose of draining, raising the grade of the streets and improving the district; that after the cost for the work has been ascertained and been assessed, the assessment may be paid in instalments or otherwise and such city or village may issue bonds sufficient to pay the assessment. In that case the bonds are a lien on the lots, looks or parts thereof which shall be designated therein; but before the issue the owner of the lots, etc., to be charged must endorse upon the back of such bond his consent, under seal, in substance as follows: "I hereby indorse the within bond "and consent that the lot or lots or parts thereof therein designated "shall become liable for the interest and principal therein named and "the same shall be a lien upon said property from this date until paid "off and discharged." The bond when executed by the city or village and so endorsed by the owner shall be recorded in the recorder's office in the county, and such record shall be a notice of the lien created to the same extent as the record of mortgages is a notice.

We have room to give only this very brief and imperfect outline of this statute. The whole law will be found in the Hurd'sRevised Statutes of Illinois, the 1901 edition, pages 337 and 338.

CHICAGO.—CARTER H. HARRISON, Mayor. LAWRENCE E. McGANN, Comptroller. JAS. G. HUBBELL, Dep. Compt.

This city is in Cook County and was incorporated March 4, 1837. Besides the issues below some new issues were in contemplation, the matter hinging on the interpretation to be given to the new assessment law. See V. 70, p. 600. The Circuit Court on Dec. 1, 1900, granted an injunction preventing the city from issuing any more bonds (V. 71, p. 1183), which ruling was confirmed by the Supreme Court. V. 72, p. 450. In December, 1902, the city offered $4,000,000 3½% bonds for sale, but did not receive any bids. These bonds were for the purpose of taking up an existing judgment debt so that the City's aggregate debt was not to be increased thereby. The bonds were again offered in February, 1903, but were withdrawn before the date of sale, it being deemed best to submit the question of issuing the bonds to a vote before putting them out; V. 76, p. 502.

PERRY COUNTY.—J. G. Taffer, Clerk.

County seat is Pinckneyville.

The bonds below described are registered with the State Auditor. The United States Supreme Court has established the validity of Chester & Tamaroa railroad-aid bonds of this county and has declared the $100,000 B. & S. S. railroad-aid bonds invalid.

At the November (1899) election, a proposition to issue bonds to refund the Chester & Tamaroa bonds together with accrued interest, amounting in all to about $190,000, was voted upon and defeated. Since then the county has been mandamused to pay indebtedness to the amount of about $162,000 as follows All interest due and accrued up to June 1, 1900, and 10% of principal to be paid in 1900. Interest and 15% of the remaining principal in 1901; interest and 20% of principal then remaining in 1902; interest and 25% outstanding principal in 1903; interest and 30% principal in 1904; interest and 50% principal in 1905, and the remaining amount due in 1906. Payments are now being made in accordance with the above order. There was on March 1, 1903, $104,000 due on judgments (account of C & T. RR. bonds) which together with about $6 000 outstanding orders or warrants (to be paid out of taxes now due) constituted the county's debt on that date.

Legislature meets biennially in odd years the first Wednesday in January, and there is no limit to the length of sessions, excepting special sessions, in attending which members can receive no more than 20 days' pay.

HISTORY OF DEBT.—The historical details of Michigan's State debt will be found in the State and City Supplement of April, 1894, page 98. In 1864 the State Treasurer reported the funded debt at $3,880,399, and $1,450,472 additional "Trust fund debt." The bonded debt July 1, 1902, consisted of $416,300 war loan bonds of 1898. The sinking fund applicable to the retirement of the war bonds on July 1, 1902, amounted to $473,311 99. The "Trust fund debt" on July 1, 1902, amounted to $6,497,036 49. The term "Trust Fund Debt" is, however, a misnomer. In explanation it should be said that the United States Government set aside certain lands in the State of Michigan for educational purposes, and under the Michigan statutes the money received from the sale of these lands is used to pay the general expenses of the State; the law provides, however, that a certain specified rate of interest must be annually figured on the total amount accumulated from said sales and be paid over to the educational institutions specified. The amount of interest to be so paid is raised by taxation. All the Michigan war-loan bonds of 1898 given below have been called for payment May 1, 1903.

LOANS.		Interest— P. ct.	Payable.	Principal— When Due.	Outstanding.

EQUALIZED VALUATION.—Since 1856 the equalized valuation has been determined only once in five years. The following shows the equalized valuation and tax rate for State purposes for every fifth year since 1846. The State tax rate for 1902 was 1·816 mills on each dollar of valuation as equalized by the State Board of Equalization.

Year.	Equalized Val.	Tax Rate	Year.	Equalized Val.	Tax Rate
1901	$1,578,100,000	$2·431	1871	$630,000,000	$1·201
1896	1,105,100,000	1·871	1866	307,965,843	1·889
1891	1,130,000,000	1·277	1861	172,055,809	2·697
1886	945,450,000	1·272	1856	137,663,009	0·472
1881	810,000,000	1·411	1851	30,976,270	3·421
1876	630,000,000	1·144	1846	29,369,065	2·50

In 1902 the assessed valuation of real estate was $1,086,816,327; personal property, $331,435,531; total valuation, $1,418,251,858.

DEBT LIMITATION.—Michigan, as noted in our history of the State's debt, started its career as a State in January 1837, when the whole land was buoyant over its inflated enterprises carried on at public expense. So to be abreast with the times, instead of putting any limit on the power of the State to create debt, it put into its Constitution a notice to the Legislature to go to work at once and make provision for "ascertaining the proper objects of improvement in relation to roads, "canals and navigable waters," that the money might be raised and these improvements might be prosecuted with as little delay as possible.

That was the spirit which ruled and the condition which prevailed in 1837. In 1850 Michigan made and adopted another Constitution. During the years which intervened the people had gained a wide experience and had evidently profited by it. Hence we find them at the latter date showing a purpose to make an instrument in its financial features about as dissimilar from the one it was to supplant as it could well be. Nothing will illustrate this change in spirit and purpose more clearly than the following limitations respecting the creation of State indebtedness which were inserted. These sections are all found in article 14 of the 1850 Constitution, which Constitution is still in force.

SECTION 3. The State may contract debts to meet deficits in revenue. Such debts shall not in the aggregate at any one time exceed fifty thousand dollars. The moneys so raised shall be applied to the purposes for which they were obtained or to the payment of the debts so contracted.

SECTION 4. The State may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection or defend the State in time of war. The money arising from the contracting of such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised or to pay such debts.

SECTION 6. The credit of the State shall not be granted to or in aid of any person, association or corporation.

SECTION 7. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State indebtedness shall be issued except for the redemption of stock previously issued or for such debts as are expressly authorized in this Constitution.

SECTION 8. The State shall not subscribe to, or be interested in the stock of any company, association or corporation.

SECTION 9. The State shall not be a party to, or interested in, any work of internal improvement, nor engage in carrying on any such work except in the expenditure of grants to the State of land or other property.

The foregoing sections appear to cover every branch and phase of the subject; and compared with the Constitution of 1837 what a contrast they afford!

Cities and villages, however, were left by the 1850 instrument to the discretion of the Legislature in the matter of restrictions upon their borrowing power. The provision which relates to this subject is found in Article 15, Section 13, and is as follows:

SECTION 13.—The Legislature shall provide for the incorporation and organization of cities and villages, and shall restrict their powers of taxation, borrowing money, contracting debts and loaning their credit.

In the exercise of the power granted by this section the Legislature has passed general laws governing the incorporation, taxation and bonding of cities and villages. The provisions, however, are too extensive to make it feasible to summarize them here. They may be found in the Compiled Laws of Michigan, edition of 1897.

DEBT LIMITATION.—The constitutional provisions of Wisconsin restricting debt-making are very rigorous, plain and comprehensive. Since the amendment adopted in 1874, cities &c., as well as the State, are definitely limited by that instrument. We will give the provisions first which relate to the State and after that those which have reference to cities, &c.

(1) STATE indebtedness is confined within very close bounds. It seems as if the framers of the Constitution must have taxed to the extreme their ingenuity for forms in which to express their determination to inhibit debt-making. The sections which cover the subject are sections 3, 4, 6, 7, 9 and 10 of Article 8. We give them in full below.

SECTION 3. Credit of State, for what not given. The credit of the State shall never be given or loaned in aid of any individual, association or corporation.

SECTION 4. Contracting debts. The State shall never contract any public debt, except in the cases and manner herein provided.

SECTION 6. Limitation on public debt. For the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenditures, the State may contract public debts (but such debts shall never in the aggregate exceed one hundred thousand dollars). Every such debt shall be authorized by law, for some purpose or purposes to be distinctly specified therein; and the vote of a majority of all the members elected to each House, to be taken by yeas and nays, shall be necessary to the passage of such law; and every such law shall provide for levying an annual tax sufficient to pay the annual interest of such debt, and the principal within five years from the passage of such law, and shall specially appropriate the proceeds of such taxes to the payment of such principal and interest; and such appropriation shall not be repealed, nor the taxes be postponed, or diminished, until the principal and interest of such debt shall have been wholly paid.

SECTION 7. State may borrow money, when. The Legislature may also borrow money to repel invasion, suppress insurrection or defend the State in time of war; but the money thus raised shall be applied exclusively to the object for which the loan was authorized, or to the repayment of the debt thereby created.

SECTION 9. Evidences of debt. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State debt, whatsoever, shall be issued, except for such debts as are authorized by the sixth and seventh sections of this article.

SECTION 10. Internal improvements—avails of grants. The State shall never contract any debt for works of internal improvement, or be a party in carrying on such works, but whenever grants of land or other property shall have been made to the State, especially dedicated by the grant to particular works of internal improvement, the State may carry on such particular works, and shall devote thereto the avails of such grants, and may pledge or appropriate the revenues derived from such works in aid of their completion.

(2) CITIES, counties, towns, villages, &c., were unrestricted except by legislative enactment until 1874. Since that amendment was adopted five per cent on the value of the taxable property has been the extreme amount of debt permissible for any municipality. Not only is that the case, but, as will be seen, the municipality is required before or at the time when it incurs any indebtedness, to make provision for an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest and also sufficient to pay the principal within twenty years from the time of contracting the debt. We give below the amendment referred to in full.

Limitation of Municipal Indebtedness—Adding to Section 3, Article 11, the words:

No county, city, town, village, school district, or other municipal corporation, shall be allowed to become indebted in any manner or for any purpose, to any amount, including existing indebtedness in the aggregate exceeding five per centum on the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for State and county taxes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness. Any county, city, town, village, school district, or other municipal corporation incurring any indebtedness, as aforesaid, shall before or at the time of doing so provide for the collection of a direct annual tax sufficient to pay the interest on such debt as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same.

On April 20, 1893, a new law passed by the Legislature of Wisconsin was approved by the Governor which gives general authority for the issuance of bonds to cities operating under special charters granted by the State, and containing a population of three thousand or more inhabitants, as follows. This authority is of course subject to the foregoing provisions of the Constitution.

For the erection and construction of a city hall and the purchase of a site for the same.

For the construction and extension of water works or the purchase of the same, and for constructing sewers, and for the improvement and maintenance of the same.

For the erection, construction and completion of school buildings and the purchase of school sites.

For the purchase of sites for engine houses, for fire engines and other equipments of the fire department, and for the construction of engine houses.

For the purchase of sites for police stations and for the construction of buildings thereon for the use of the police department.

For the construction of viaducts, bridges, and for repairs of the same.

For the erection and construction of library and museum buildings and the purchase of sites for the same.

For the establishment of public baths and hospitals and the purchase of sites for the same.

For the purchase of lands for public parks and improvements thereof and for the payment of purchase money and interest thereon which may be or become due for park lands already acquired or contracted for.

For permanently improving streets in such city, and for creating a fund out of which to advance the cost of repairs to sidewalks in anticipation of the collection of special assessments for such cost of repairs by the Treasurer of such city.

For the construction or purchase of electric or gas light plants for lighting streets and public buildings.

For refunding existing indebtedness.

The law further provides that bonds issued under this act shall bear interest, payable annually or semi-annually, at a rate not exceeding 6 per cent per annum; that the Common Council shall annually levy a tax upon all the taxable property sufficient to pay the annual interest thereon, and to provide a sinking fund each year equal to 5 per cent on the principal of said bonds; that no bonds shall be issued so that the amount thereof, together with all the other indebtedness of the city, shall exceed 5 per cent of the assessed valuation of the city and also that the bonds shall show on their face the amount of indebtedness of the city issuing the same, the annual amount of the assessment of the taxable property therein for the five years next preceding the issue, and the average amount thereof, and they shall not be sold for less than their par value and accrued interest.

No system could be devised better adapted for keeping municipal debt at a minimum than the foregoing amendment establishes.

*The total taxes levied in the above table includes the amounts raised not only for State purposes, but also all taxes raised by the various minor divisions of the State. The tax rate, however, is for State purposes, and besides the tax of $1·60, as given above, for 1902 there was a tax of $1·23 for school and university purposes.

DEBT LIMITATION.—Minnesota has protected the State from extravagant expenditures through restrictions which its Constitution puts on every kind of debt making. That instrument fixes the limit at $250,000 "for the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenditures;" and an amendment, ratified in 1879, extended this power to $250,000 additional "for erecting and completing buildings for the insane, a deaf dumb and blind asylum, and State prison." Besides the foregoing, it is also provided that the State credit shall not be loaned, &c. With regard to the debt of municipalities there is but one section in the Constitution which relates to that subject, and that has reference to making railroad debt.

FIRST, as to State indebtedness, the sections which treat of the subject are in article 9, sections 5, 6, 7, 8 and 14.

SECTION 5. (Public debt may be contracted.) For the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenditures, the State may contract public debts, but such debts shall never, in the aggregate, exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; every such debt shall be authorized by law for some single object, to be distinctly specified therein; and no such law shall take effect until it shall have been passed by the vote of two-thirds of the members of each branch of the Legislature, to be recorded by the yeas and nays on the journals of each House, respectively; and every such law shall levy a tax, annually, sufficient to pay the annual interest of such debt, and also a tax sufficient to pay the principal of such debt within ten years from the final passage of such law, and shall specially appropriate the proceeds of such taxes to the payment of such principal and interest; and such appropriation and taxes shall not be repealed, postponed, or diminished, until the principal and interest of such debt shall have been wholly paid. The State shall never contract any debts for works of internal improvement, or be a party in carrying on such works, except in cases where grants of land or other property shall have been made to the State, especially dedicated by the grant to specific purposes; and in such cases the State shall devote thereto the avails of such grants, and may pledge or appropriate the revenues derived from such works in aid of their completion.

SECTION 6.—(Public debt how contracted.) All debts authorized by the preceding section shall be contracted by loan on State bonds of amounts not less than five hundred dollars each, on interest, payable within ten years after the final passage of the law authorizing such debt; and such bonds shall not be sold by the State under par. A correct registry of all such bonds shall be kept by the Treasurer in numerical order, so as always to exhibit the number and amount unpaid and to whom severally made payable.

SECTION 7.—The State shall never contract any public debt, unless in time of war, to repel invasion or suppress insurrection, except in the cases and in the manner provided in the fifth and sixth sections of this article.

SECTION 8.—(Appropriation of money received from loan or State bonds.) The money arising from any loan made, or debt or liability contracted, shall be applied to the object specified in the act authorizing such debt or liability, or to the repayment of such debt or liability, and to no other purpose whatever.

SECTION 14.—(State debt for public buildings). For the purpose of erecting and completing buildings for a hospital for the insane, a deaf, dumb and blind asylum, and State prison, the Legislature may by law increase the public debt of the State to an amount not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, in addition to the public debt already heretofore authorized by the Constitution, and for that purpose may provide by law for issuing and negotiating the bonds of the State and appropriate the money only for the purpose aforesaid; which bonds shall be payable in not less than ten nor more than thirty years from the date of the same, at the option of the State.

SECOND, as to city, county or other municipality the only restriction on the debt-making power in the Constitution is the following, found in article 9, section 15.

SECTION 14.—(Municipal debts in aid of railroads.) The Legislature shall not authorize any county, township, city or other municipal corporation to issue bonds or to become indebted in any manner to aid in the construction or equipment of any or all railroads to an amount that shall exceed five per centum of the value of the taxable property within such county, township, city, or other municipal corporation; the amount of such taxable property to be ascertained and determined by the last assessment of said property made for the purpose of State and county taxation previous to the incurring of such indebtedness.

The foregoing was adopted as an amendment in 1879. Before its adoption the section read so as to authorize municipal corporations to issue bonds in aid of railroads to ten per cent of valuation. Hence the amendment consisted in simply changing the word ten and making it five.

This is all the Constitution contains with reference to the debts of municipalities. The Legislature, however, has made some general provisions governing bond issues, which will be found in the STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT for October, 1899, and in previous numbers of that publication.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS,—Four amendments to the State constitution were adopted at the November, 1902 election. Two of these relate to taxation, a third to school fund loans and the fourth to a State road and bridge fund. One of the tax amendments increases the amount of taxes to be collected by the State upon railroad property from 3% to 4% upon the gross earnings of lines operated in the State; the other tax measure provides for a tax on real estate mortgages, franchises, incomes of corporations and individuals, etc.

SINKING FUND.—It is provided by the city's charter that in addition to raising a tax sufficient to pay the interest on all its bonds the city shall levy a tax of one mill on each dollar of the assessed valuation to provide for the principal of the bonds when due. The maintenance of this sinking fund for the payment of the principal of the bonds is "declared to be part of the contract with the holder of any bonds of the city that may hereafter be issued and shall be kept inviolate." In accordance with this provision there was raised by taxation for the sinking fund in 1902 $138,864 The sinking fund is invested in city of Minneapolis 4 and 4½ per cent bonds.

The city of Minneapolis is restricted in its debt-making power to 5 per cent of the assessed valuation after deducting the sinking fund from the debt; exception is made by Chapter 204, Laws of 1893, as amended by Chapter 128, Laws of 1895, wherein it is provided that debt created for the purchase of water works shall be considered outside of the 5 per cent limit, and also that an additional 5 per cent debt may be created for certain purposes, provided the same be authorized by a two-thirds vote of the people. We have marked above with a section (§) mark those issues put out in excess of the 5 per cent limit,

TAX RATE.—The State tax (per $1,000) for 1903 was $4·00; this includes general State tax, $3·50, and special tax, 50 cents, for educational purposes.

DEBT LIMITATION.—Iowa's Constitution restricts the creating of debt, both State debt and municipal debt.

FIRST, as to State debt, the limitation made is not absolute, for it permits other debt if authorized by some law for some single specified work. But this permission is very safely guarded—(1) the law must provide for the collection of a direct annual tax sufficient to pay the interest regularly and discharge the debt in twenty years; and (2) the law cannot take effect until it has been submitted to the people at a general election, and has received a majority of the votes cast. All the debt provisions relating to the State we give below.

ARTICLE 7, Section 1. [Limitation of State indebtedness.] The credit of the State shall not in any manner be given or loaned to, or in aid of, any individual, association, or corporation; and the State shall never assume, or become responsible for, the debts or liabilities of any individual, association or corporation, unless incurred in time of war for the benefit of the State.

SECTION 2. [Same.] The State may contract debts to supply casual deficits or failures in revenues, or to meet expenses otherwise provided for; but the aggregate amount of such debts, direct and contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the General Assembly or at different periods of time, shall never exceed the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; and the money arising from the creation of such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repay the debts so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

SECTION 4. [For what other purposes State may contract debt.] In addition to the above limited power to contract debts, the State may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or defend the State in war; but the money arising from the debts so contracted shall be applied for the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever.

SECTION 5. [Other debts to be authorized.]—Except the debts hereinbefore specified in this article, no debt shall be hereafter contracted by or on behalf of this State, unless such debt shall be authorized by some law for some single work or object, to be distinctly specified therein; and such law shall impose and provide for the collection of a direct annual tax sufficient to pay the interest on such debt as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal of such debt within twenty years from the time of contracting thereof; but no such law shall take effect until at a general election it shall have been submitted to the people, and have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election; and all money raised by authority of such law shall be applied only to the specific object therein stated, or to the payment of the debt created thereby; and such law shall be published in at least one newspaper in each county, if one is published therein, throughout the State, for three months preceding the election at which it is submitted to the people.

ARTICLE VIII, Section 3. [State not to be a stockholder.]—The State shall not become a stockholder in any corporation, nor shall it assume or pay the debt or liability of any corporation, unless incurred in time of war for the benefit of the State.

There can be but little fear that a State or city will ever create debt in any larger amount than it can easily pay where the law, as in the above case, requires a tax to be levied at the time of its creation sufficient to pay the interest annually and the principal when due.

SECOND, as to municipal indebtedness, the limit is fixed absolutely in the Constitution. The provisions covering the subject are as follows:

ARTICLE VIII, Section 4. [Corporation not to be a stockholder.] No political or municipal corporation shall become a stockholder in any banking corporation, directly or indirectly.

ARTICLE XI, Section 3. [To what amount county may become indebted.] No county or other political or municipal corporation shall be allowed to become indebted in any manner, or for any purpose, to an amount in the aggregate exceeding five per centum on the value of the taxable property within such county or corporation—to be ascertained by the last State and county tax list previous to the incurring of such indebtedness. [The Legislature, however, has fixed a lower limit, as stated below.]

The above (section 3 of article XI) covers cities, counties, towns and every other kind of political or municipal corporation. The Supreme Court of Iowa has decided that even a school district is such a corporation and subject to same limit. The Legislature of 1900 passed a bill (approved April 6, 1900,) fixing the limit of indebtedness of counties or other political or municipal corporations at only 1¼ per cent of the actual value of property in cities or towns as returned by the last tax list. This change was made because, under a revision of the Revenue Law which went into effect in 1898, property is now appraised for taxation on a much higher basis than formerly. We present this bill in full.

SECTION 1.—That Section thirteen hundred and six (1306) of the Code be and is hereby repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof.

SEC. 2.—"No county or other political or municipal corporation, including cities acting under special charters, shall be allowed to become indebted, in any manner or for any purpose, to an amount in the aggregate exceeding one and one-fourth per centum on the actual value of the property within such county or corporation, to be ascertained by the last State and county tax list previous to the incurring of such indebtedness."

SEC. 3.—This Act being deemed of immediate importance shall be in force from and after its publication in the Des Moines "Register" and the Des Moines "Leader," newspapers published in Des Moines, Iowa.

The special assessment bonds are secured by property certificates issued and held in trust for bondholders. A tax levy of $5·00 (per $1,000) is made each year for water purposes.

The total amount of cash in the various funds on April 1, 1902, was $79,586.

NOTE—Decrease in valuation since 1899 is due to a change in the law. Property was formerly assessed at from 30 to 40% of its value, but under a new law all real estate is appraised at its supposed full cash value, of which, however, only 25% constitutes the listed or assessed value.

INTEREST on all the bonds is payable in New York City at the National Park Bank; also at City Treasury.

Legislature meets biennially in odd years on the first Wednesday after the first Monday of January, and there is no limit to length of sessions; but after the first seventy days members can draw only a dollar a day for their services, except every tenth year, when the statutes are revised, at which session members are allowed $5·00 per day for 120 days. A session of this kind was held in 1899.

HISTORY OF DEBT.—The interesting details of Missouri's eventful history in debt-making and debt-paying will be found on page 111 of the STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT for April, 1893. The details of the debt are as follows:

* These bonds were redeemed on February 28, 1903. The State, therefore, has no debt at present except the school and seminary fund certificates. On February 28, 1903, the cash on hand aggregated $3,281,484.

The total debt, including accrued interest, &c., on Jan. 1, 1865, was $36,094,908. The entire amount of school and seminary certificates is held by the State School and State Seminary funds.

ASSESSED VALUATION.—The State's assessed valuation (about one-fourth actual value) and tax rate have been as follows. This valuation does not include valuation of railroads, bridges and telegraphs, which amounted in 1902 to $120,869,198, or of machinery, tools, merchandise, etc., as taxed on "merchants' and manufacturers' tax books," which amounted in 1902 to $62,787,751. The tax rate for 1903 is $1·80.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS—Eight amendments to the State Constitution were adopted at the November 1902 election. Several of the amendments relate to taxation; one permits the city of St. Louis to frame a new charter, while another amends Article 10, Section 12, by exempting water and assumed county debt of St Louis and water debt Kansas City in computing the indebtedness of those cities. Article X is also amended by adding a new section (Section 12a) which permits cities of not less than 2,000 nor more than 30,000 inhabitants to issue water and light bonds to the amount of 5 p. c. of the taxable property in excess of the debt limit. A two-thirds vote at an election held for the purpose is necessary to authorize. See V. 75, p. 1165

DEBT LIMITATION.—Missouri has made provision in its Constitution restricting the creation of debt both on behalf of the State and of its municipalities. That part relating to the State is found in Article 4, Sections 44, 45 and 46. These sections provide that the General Assembly cannot contract debts except (1) to renew existing bonds, (2) to meet an unforeseen emergency or casual deficiency. The State is prohibited from lending its credit to any person, association or corporation or to pledge its credit for the payment of liabilities of any individual, association or corporation.

The sections relating to the indebtedness of cities and other municipalities are found in Article 4, Section 47; Article 9, Section 6, and Article 10, Section 12 and 12a. These sections make clear (1) that a municipality cannot loan its credit; (2) that it cannot subscribe to the capital stock of corporations; (3) that it cannot get into debt unless two-thirds of the voters voting at an election favor it, and then only to an aggregate of 5 per cent of valuation, except that with such assent any county may be allowed to become indebted in a larger amount for the erection of a court house or jail, and except also per the amendment of 1902 (Section 12a referred to above), cities of from 2,000 to 30,000 inhabitants may by vote exceed the limit by an additional 5 per cent for water and light purposes; finally (4) that before or at the time of getting the assent of the voters an annual tax must be provided sufficient to pay interest and form a sinking fund to pay the debt within 20 years. These provisions are certainly very conservative. The sections above referred to will be found in the STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT for April, 1901, on pages 117 and 118.

The figures of total debt include the water debt, amounting Feb. 15, 1903, to $2,903,000 Water debt sinking fund, $241,000.

The city has no floating debt and the surplus income received by it from the water works, after paying all operating expenses and the annual interest on the entire water debt, is now about $152,000.

A sinking fund is provided by the laws of Missouri calculated to extinguish the total debt of the city in about 20 years without reducing the amount appropriated for current expenses and improvements and without increasing taxation.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—An amendment to the State Constitution was adopted at the November (1902) election, which permits the exclusion of the water debt in computing the limit of indebtedness.

GOLD BONDS.—All the city's bonds are payable, principal and interest, in gold, except the $245,000 6s issued for purchase of Block 121.

INTEREST on all bonds is payable in New York City—on the Purchase of Block 121 6s, at the First National Bank; on the Park bonds at the National Bank of Commerce. Interest on the bonds payable in £ sterling, on those maturing in 1912, 1914, 1915 and 1922 on the 3½s of 1909 and 1918, is payable at the National Bank of Commerce, New York, or at the National Bank of Scotland (Limited), London, at the rate of $4·8665 per pound sterling. Interest on all other bonds is payable at the National Bank of Commerce, N. Y., or at the office of J. S. Morgan & Co., London, at the option of the holder.

TOTAL DEBT, SINKING FUNDS, ETC.—The subjoined statement shows St. Louis's total municipal debt and the water debt, &c.

	March 1, 1903.	April 7, 1902.	April 8, 1901.
Total bonded debt	$23,736,278	$18,916,278	$18,916,278
Water, debt included	5,808,000	5,808,000	5,808,000

NOTE.—Under the charter the Municipal Assembly must appropriate $1,200,000 annually with which to pay debt and the interest thereon. That portion of each annual appropriation not required for the payment of the interest constitutes the sinking fund for redemption of the debt existing April 7, 1890, and bonds issued in renewal thereof. On the basis of renewing the city's bonded debt at 4 per cent, the debt for which this sinking fund was established will be extinguished in 1927. The sinking fund on April 7, 1902, was $653,866.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.—By Constitutional amendments adopted November, 1902, the city is empowered to levy an additional tax of 35 cents for municipal purposes; to make a new charter through a board of freeholders to be elected by the people, and to exempt the county indebtedness of $6,111,000 and the water works indebtedness of $5,808,000 in determining the limit of indebtedness. Under these amendments, we are advised, the city can increase its bonded indebtedness by about $8,000,000, provided it is authorized to do so by two-thirds of the voters at an election held for that purpose.

CITY PROPERTY.—The city owns its water works, the revenue from which for water rates, permits, etc., for the fiscal year 1901-1902 was $1,757,906 and net operating expenses and cost of collecting water rates were $654,068. In addition to the water works the city owns its hospitals, insane asylums and poor house, city hall, court house, jail, house of correction and work house, engine houses, markets, police stations, parks, etc.

ASSESSED VALUATION.—The city's assessed valuation, including real estate, personal property and railroad, bridge, telegraph, express and street railway property (about 3-5 cash value), and tax rate have been as follows:

TAX RATE.—In 1902 the tax rate (per $1,000) was $3·50.

DEBT LIMITATION.—South Dakota has incorporated into its Constitution very stringent provisions limiting the debt-making power of the State and its municipalities. All these provisions are found in Article XIII., and are as follows.

SECTION 1. Neither the State nor any county, township or municipality shall loan or give its credit or make donation to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation, except for the necessary support of the poor, nor subscribe to or become the owner of the capital stock of any association or corporation, nor pay or become responsible for the debt or liability of any individual, association or corporation; provided, that the State may assume or pay such debt or liability when incurred in time of war for the defense of the State. Nor shall the State engage in any work of internal improvement.

SEC. 2. For the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenses and making public improvements, or to meet casual deficits or failure in revenue, the State may contract debts never to exceed with previous debts in the aggregate $100,000, and no greater indebtedness shall be incurred except for the purpose of repelling invasion, suppressing insurrection, or defending the State or the United States in war, and provision shall be made by law for the payment of the interest annually, and the principal when due, by tax levied for the purpose, or from other sources of revenue; which law providing for the payment of such interest and principal by such tax tax or otherwise shall be irrepealable until such debt is paid; provided, however, the State of South Dakota shall have the power to refund the Territorial debt assumed by the State of South Dakota by bonds of the State of South Dakota.

SEC. 3. That the indebtedness of the State of South Dakota, limited by section 2 of this article, shall be in addition to the debt of the Territory of Dakota, assumed by and agreed to be paid by South Dakota.

SEC. 4. This Section was amended in 1896 and again in 1902. In the following we indicate by means of black-faced brackets [ ] the parts of the law added by the 1902 amendment:

SEC. 4. The debt of any county, city, town, school district, civil township or other sub-division shall never exceed five (5) per centum upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein [for the year preceding that in which said indebtedness is incurred]. In estimating the amount of [the] indebtedness which a municipality or sub-division may incur, the amount of indebtedness contracted prior to the adoption of the Constitution shall be included.

Provided, That any county, municipal corporation, civil township, district or other sub-division may incur an additional indebtedness not exceeding ten per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein [for the year preceding that in which said indebtedness is incurred] for the purpose of providing water [and sewerage] for irrigation, domestic uses [sewerage and other purposes; and]

[Provided, further, that in a city where the population is 8,000 or more, such city may incur an indebtedness not exceeding eight per centum upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein for the year next preceding that in which said indebtedness is incurred, for the purpose of constructing street railways, electric lights, or other lighting plants.]

Provided further, That no county, municipal corporation, civil township [district or sub-division] shall be included within such district or sub-division without a majority vote in favor thereof of the electors of the county, municipal corporation, civil township [district or other sub-division], as the case may be, which is proposed to be included therein, and no such debt shall ever be incurred for any of the purposes in this section provided, unless authorized by a vote in favor thereof by a majority of the electors of such county, municipal corporation, civil township, district or sub-division incurring the same.

SEC. 5. Any city, county, town, school district or any other sub division incurring indebtedness shall, at or before the time of so doing, provide for the collection of an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest and also the principal thereof when due, and all laws or ordinances providing for the payment of the interest or principal of any debt shall be irrepealable until such debt be paid.

POPULATION OF STATE.—The population of South Dakota has been reported as follows in the years named. The figures for 1900 include Indians and whites on Indian reservations, who in previous years were excluded from the enumeration. The aggregate of such persons in 1890 was 19,792, and should be added to the total for that year in making comparisons.

HISTORY OF DEBT.—For history of the State debt see STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April, 1894, page 122.

This State has no bonded indebtedness at present. The bonded debt, which on Dec. 1, 1892, amounted to $549,267, was gradually reduced until June 3, 1900, when the last remaining $35,000 was paid off. On Dec. 1, 1902, the general fund warrants outstanding amounted to $1,989,329. The cash in the treasury on the same date was $432,255.

PERMANENT SCHOOL FUND.—The investments of the school funds on Dec. 1, 1902, amounted to $5,456,977 90, held as follows: Permanent school fund, $5,072,234 79; University fund, $101,050 97; Agricultural College endowment fund, $224,692 14, and the Normal College endowment fund, $59,000.

DEBT LIMITATION.—Nebraska has carefully provided in its Constitution against creating State indebtedness, but has left city and other municipal indebtedness chiefly in the care of the Legislature.

STATE indebtedness is restricted to $100,000 to meet casual deficits in revenues, except in case of invasions, &c., while the loaning by the State of its credit is prohibited. The sections of the Constitution which have reference to these matters will be found in the STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April, 1895, pages 124 and 125.

OTOE COUNTY.—CHAS. H. BUSCH, Co. Clerk.

County seat is Nebraska City.

Some years ago the precinct of Nebraska City was formed, and included the city of that name and adjoining lands. Bonds to the amount of $40,000 were issued and interest paid for some years. The County Commissioners then declared the precinct illegally organized and refused to levy a tax. Litigation resulted and the Courts have ordered a tax sufficient to pay debt to be levied on territory covered by the precinct in 1886, the year the bonds were sold. See V. 72, p. 302. New bonds were issued in 1901.

HISTORY OF DEBT.—When Kansas was admitted into the Union as a State (in 1861) it had a bonded debt of $150,000. The Constitution of 1859 limited the debt-making power to one million dollars (with certain restrictions and exceptions), as more fully described below. In 1866 the bonded debt was $630,775, of which the State owned $28,650. In 1878 the total bonded debt was $1,181,975, of which the State owned $713,600. The bonded debt July 1, 1902, was $632,000, all held by State funds. The Permanent School Fund on July 1, 1902, aggregated $6,814,351 52.

DEBT LIMITATION,—Kansas has by its Constitution given the State power to contract public debts for the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenses and making public improvements in an amount not to exceed $1,000,000. This limit, however, has two exceptions. First, the next section provides that it may be exceeded if the proposed law for creating such debt shall be submitted to a vote of the electors, and if the proposed law be ratified by a majority of the votes cast. Second, the section following provides that the State may borrow money to repel invasion, &c. We give these sections in full and also the subsequent one which forbids the State being a party to internal improvements.

Debts, annual tax; proceeds. For the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenses and making public improvements, the State may contract public debts; but such debts shall never, in the aggregate, exceed one million dollars, except as hereinafter provided. Every such debt shall be authorized by law for some purpose specified therein, and the vote of a majority of all the members elected to each House, to be taken by the yeas and nays, shall be necessary to the passage of such law; and every such law shall provide for levying an annual tax sufficient to pay the annual interest of such debt and the principal thereof when it shall become due; and shall specifically appropriate the proceeds of such taxes to the payment of such principal and interest; and such appropriation shall not be repealed nor the taxes postponed or diminished until the interest and principal of such debt shall have been wholly paid.

Other debts. No debt shall be contracted by the State except as herein provided, unless the proposed law for creating such debt shall first be submitted to a direct vote of the electors of the State at some general election; and if such proposed law shall be ratified by a majority of all the votes cast at such general election, then it shall be the duty of the Legislature next after such election to enact such law and create such debt, subject to all the provisions and restrictions provided in the preceding section of this article.

Borrow money. The State may borrow money to repel invasion, suppress insurrection or defend the State in time of war; but the money thus raised shall be applied exclusively to the object for which the loan was authorized, or to the repayment of the debt thereby created.

Internal improvements. The State shall never be a party in carrying on any works of internal improvement.

MUNICIPAL indebtedness is not restricted by the Constitution at all. The only provision for the regulation of such matters contained in that instrument is the following, requiring the Legislature to make general laws and restricting the power to make debt in the case of cities, towns and villages.

Cities. Provision shall be made by general law for the organization of cities, towns and villages; and their power of taxation, assessment, borrowing money, contracting debts and loaning their credit, shall be so restricted as to prevent the abuse of such power.

Under the foregoing the legislation of Kansas has become so extensive that our limited space here does not admit of even a brief digest. The reader will, however, find the ground very fully covered in a series of articles which were published in the CHRONICLE, Vol. 53, pages 854 and 942, and Vol. 54, pages 42 and 128. In 1903 a bill (approved March 7) passed the Legislature fixing 15 p. c. of the assessed value of taxable property as the limit of bonded debt of any city of 50,000 or more—special improvement and sewer bonds (assessed on property benefited) to be considered outside this limit. The Act further provides that the total bonded debt, including special improvement bonds, shall not exceed 30 p. c. of the assessed value. The Act was published in full in V. 76, p. 667.

The loans described below are not strictly State debts, the bonds being issued on land grants; the State has no bonded indebtedness, and is not liable for these loans. The registered warrants outstanding on Dec. 1, 1902, amounted to $393,700, and on the same date the State institutions had a warrant indebtedness of $50,977. The State is not liable for the latter. DEBT LIMITATION.—The Constitution of Montana was adopted by popular vote October 1, 1889. Article XIII. contains the Sections which regulate the debt-making powers of State, county and city, and we gave those sections in full on page 135 of the State and City Supplement of April, 1895. It may be mentioned that the restrictions and limitations are distinctly and fully stated.

POPULATION OF STATE.—

The population in 1900 included Indians and whites on Indian reservations not previously counted in the enumeration. In 1890 there were 10,765, and in 1880 31,650 such persons, which number should be added to the total for those years in making accurate comparisons.

DEBT LIMITATION.—Idaho has placed limits in its Constitution upon the debt-making power both of the State and its municipalities. Though the provisions have a conservative tendency, they are not quite as strict as the Constitutional limitations of most of the other new States. For a digest of the laws respecting debt limitation in Idaho, see STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April, 1895, pages 138 and 139.

1890	84,385

In 1870-80 increase was 17,611, or 117·41 per cent, and in 1880-90 51,775, or 158·77 per cent. In 1890-1900 the increase was 77,387, or 91·7 per cent, a part of which is due to the fact that the 1900 aggregate embraces Indians and whites on Indian reservations not heretofore included. Such persons numbered 4,163 in 1890 and 3,420 in 1880, which amounts should be added to the totals for those years in making comparisons.

*Under the Revenue Law of 1901 property is required to be assessed at its full value. This accounts for the large increase in values in 1901, as property was assessed at a very much lower basis in earlier years.

In addition to the tax rate as above there is a poll tax of $1·00 per capita. In 1880 and prior to that date this poll tax was 50 cents per capita.

DEBT LIMITATION.—Colorado's Constitutional provisions with reference to the creation of debt are of considerable length, and strike one at first as quite elaborate. After a brief study of the provisions their good qualities stand out so plainly as wholly to disarm criticism. No State has placed the debt-making power on a more reasonable basis. All the regulations with reference to public indebtedness are found in article 11 of the Constitution. See STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April, 1895, pages 140 and 141.

DEBT LIMITATION.—The indebtedness of this State is limited by its Constitution. The following is Article XIV. of that instrument, entitled "Public Debt":

"To meet casual deficits or failures in revenue, and for necessary expenditures for public purposes, including the erection of public buildings, and for the payment of all Territorial indebtedness assumed by the State, the State may contract debts not exceeding in the aggregate at any one time the sum of $200,000 over and above the amount of the Territorial indebtedness assumed by the State. But when the said Territorial indebtedness shall have been paid, the State shall never contract any indebtedness, except as in the next section provided, in excess of the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, and all moneys arising from loans herein authorized shall be applied solely to the purposes for which they are obtained."

The "next section" mentioned above refers to debt contracted "to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or to defend the State in war."

Title 40, Revised Statutes of Utah, provides further for a State Board of Loan Commissioners, who are authorized to refund all outstanding Territorial bonds. These bonds are not to be taxed within the State of Utah for any purpose. Under the provisions of this Act several Territorial bond issues have been refunded.

Under Senate Bill No. 15, passed by the State Legislature in 1901, school districts are permitted to incur indebtedness up to 4 per cent of the assessed valuation of property. Previously the limit was 2 per cent of the valuation.

County seat is Santa Fe. A committee of citizens, appointed to adjust the bonded and other indebtedness of the county on the basis of 25 cents on the dollar (V. 70, p. 242), failed to effect such compromise. On January 7, 1902, the Board of County Commissioners passed a resolution offering to compromise the debt on the basis of 50 cents on the dollar, issuing in payment 3 per cent bonds. This compromise was not acceptable to the bondholders. V. 74, p. 110. See V. 71, p. 303 and 1183, for suit instituted by Bird S. Coler et al of New York City. A later compromise of 60 per cent in 3 per cent bonds was also rejected. V. 76, p. 119.

The $600,000 of Depot bonds, being in the nature of a loan to the Harbor Commissioners, are not included in the total indebtedness of the State; these bonds are payable out of a sinking fund receiving its revenue from moneys collected by the San Francisco Harbor Commissioners; $200,000 of this issue is held by the State in trust for the State School Fund.

In trust for the University Fund (bonds of 1873)..... 751,000

The above bonds ($2,277,500), it is proper to add, matured in 1893. No sinking fund having been provided for their payment, they were taken over by the State for its school funds and have been so held since 1893.

DEBT LIMITATION.—Municipal indebtedness as well as State debt is carefully regulated in the Constitution of California. The section relating to the bonding of counties, cities, towns, etc., was altered by constitutional amendment adopted February 25, 1891. Nothing in explanation of the provisions needs to be said, as the sections of the Constitution treating of this subject are all very plain and comprehensive; they will be found in the STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April, 1895, page 146.

A new law regulating indebtedness for public improvements was enacted in 1901. Section 4 of this law establishes a limit for such indebtedness, and is as follows:

LIMIT OF INDEBTEDNESS.

SEC. 4.—No city, town, or municipal corporation shall incur an indebtedness for public improvements which shall in the aggregate exceed 15 per cent of the assessed value of all the real and personal property of such city, town or municipal corporation.

This new law is given in full in the CHRONICLE, Aug. 10, 1901, p. 303.

TAX EXEMPT AMENDMENT.—At the November (1902) election the following amendment to Article 13 of the State Constitution was favorably voted upon. V. 74, p. 916; V. 75, p. 1366.

SECTION 1¾. All bonds hereafter issued by the State of California, or by any county, city and county, municipal corporation, or district (including school, reclamation and irrigation districts) within said State, shall be free and exempt from taxation. See editorial article in STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of October, 1902.

CITIES, COUNTIES AND TOWNS IN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

NOTE.—For debts of civil divisions not found among the statements given below, see "Additional Statements" at the end of this State.

Many of the counties in this State levy a special tax on property outside incorporated cities and towns for making, repairing and sprinkling of roads, and the tax rate as given below under these counties is made up of the State tax rate and the county tax rate including special road tax.

SACRAMENTO.—C. M. Prodger, Treasurer.

This city is the county seat of Sacramento County and the capital of the State. The original debt was a little less than $1,600,000, being four series of 6 per cent bonds, issued in 1858, and falling due in 1888, 1893, 1898 and 1903 The flood of 1861-1862 destroyed half of the property values, and the coupons had been delinquent for a dozen years. In 1872 a Funded Debt Commission (abolished by Legislative Act of 1899) was created and received from the city a gift, or capital, of $212,080 80. With this it bought bonds and coupons, and collected from the city as other creditors did and re-invested in more bonds and coupons. In 1899 the Commission was ordered by decree of Court to cancel $1,411,167 60 of the bonds and coupons at par.

SANTA CRUZ.—DAVID C. CLARK, Mayor. J. L. WRIGHT, Clerk.

This city is in Santa Cruz County. The city has been in litigation over its 5 per cent refunding bonds (issued April 16, 1894), which it refused to pay, they having been purloined, but on Sept. 28, 1898, the United States Circuit Court held the entire issue of $360,000 bonds invalid as between the city of Santa Cruz and purchasers of the bonds having notice of the facts constituting their invalidity, but also held that the city was estopped by recitals contained in the bonds, from denying their validity in the case of innocent purchasers for value. Upon this ground the court rendered judgment against the city for the amount of principal and interest due upon such bonds as were purchased upon the faith of recitals contained therein and without notice or knowledge of their invalidity. The municipality received no consideration whatever for these bonds. The United States Circuit Court of Appeals, however, on Dec. 5, 1899, declared that the entire issue was void, on the ground that there was a flaw in the bonds themselves which the purchasers should have investigated before buying. V. 69, p. 1260. The U. S. Supreme Court on Feb. 24, 1902, reversed the latter decision and the case was sent back with instructions (V. 74, p. 590), and the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Sept., 1902, thereupon gave its decision accordingly. V. 75, p. 694. A compromise was effected in March, 1903, the details of which will be found in V. 76, p. 770. The city was in litigation also over $225,000 5 per cent water bonds issued Jan. 16, 1889, but in this case, having received value for the bonds, has been disposed to pay maturing principal and interest, notwithstanding their supposed invalidity. The suits brought by tax-payers to resist the payment of interest have been dismissed by the Court, and the bonds and coupons are being paid as they fall due.

Secretary of State (term ex. 2d Mon. Jan. 1907), F. I. Dunbar
Treasurer (term ex. 2d Mon. Jan. 1907) - C. S. Moore

* The Legislature does not always canvass the vote for Governor immediately upon its meeting, and the Governor's term runs until his successor is declared elected.

Legislature meets biennially in odd years on the second Monday in January, and there is no limit to length of sessions; but members of the Legislature can draw pay only for 40 days' services in the aggregate.

HISTORY OF DEBT.—For history of Oregon's State debt see STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April, 1894, page 147.

To-day Oregon practically has no bonded debt. There are some little left-over lots that go by that name, in the aggregate amounting to $1,238·58, which the State is ready and would be very glad to pay, but cannot get them in. Interest on these ceased prior to December 31, 1896.

On Oct. 1, 1902, the amounts held in the irreducible trust funds were as follows: School fund, $4,237,216; Agricultural College fund, $155,933, and University fund, $102,167.

DEBT LIMITATION.—Oregon framed and adopted its Constitution in 1857. It is quite a notable fact that the people of the State are to-day living under that instrument in the precise form in which it was originally adopted, for there never has been an amendment made to it. The provisions with respect to debt limitation will be found on pages 150 and 151 of the STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April, 1895.

POPULATION OF STATE.—The population of Oregon has been as follows in the years named:

DEBT LIMITATION.—Like so many of the younger States, Washington has taken a conservative position with respect to State and municipal indebtedness. The provisions of the Constitution with reference to creating debt are so comprehensive and plain that it is necessary to do no more than copy the sections relating to the subject.

FIRST, with reference to the State, there are three sections; the first limits the debt, the second names exceptions to the limit and the third provides the method in which additional debt may be created. These sections are all found in article 8, and were given in the STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April, 1895; page 152.

SECOND, Counties, Cities, Towns &c. are more rigorously guarded. The whole system as to municipalities is found in section 6 of article 8, though section 7 is also important, as it forbids counties, cities &c. giving money or loaning credit to any corporation &c. Sections 6 and 7 will be found on page 152 of the April, 1895, SUPPLEMENT.

The State tax rate (per $1,000) for 1902 was $8·00.

DEBT LIMITATION.—Nevada has in its Constitution limited the State to a nominal indebtedness, except for the purpose of "defraying extraordinary expenses" arising from invasion, war, etc.; and in such cases the law shall provide an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest semi-annually and the principal within twenty-years. Further the State is forbidden ever to assume the debt of any county, city, etc., or to donate or loan its money or credit, or to subscribe to the stock of any company, etc.

Counties, cities, towns etc. cannot become stockholders in any company, or loan their credit, etc. But other than that the Constitution omits to put any limit on county, city, etc., debts; but provides that the Legislature shall make general laws restricting their borrowing power The Constitutional provisions referred to are as follows:

ARTICLE IX., SECTION 3. [State debt limited.] For the purpose of enabling the State to transact its business upon a cash basis from its organization, the State may contract public debts, but such debts shall never in the aggregate, exclusive of interest, exceed the sum of three hundred thousand dollars, except for the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenses, as hereinafter mentioned. Every such debt shall be authorized by law for some purpose or purposes, to be distinctly specified therein, and every such law shall provide for levying an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest semi-annually and the principal within twenty years from the passage of such law, and shall specially appropriate the proceeds of said taxes to the payment of said principal and interest; and such appropriation shall not be repealed, nor the taxes be postponed or diminished, until the principal and interest of said debts shall have been wholly paid. Every contract of indebtedness entered into or assumed by or on behalf of the State, when all its debts and liabilities amount to said sum before mentioned, shall be void and of no effect, except in cases of money borrowed to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the State in time of war, or, if hostilities be threatened, to provide for the public defense.

SECTION 4. [State prohibited from assuming debts of cities, &c.] The State shall never assume the debt of any county, town, city, or other corporation whatever, unless such debts have been created to repel invasion, suppress insurrection or to provide for the public defense.

ARTICLE VIII., SECTION 9. [State shall not loan its money or credit &c.] The State shall not donate or loan money or its credit, subscribe to or be interested in the stock of any company, association or corporation, except corporations formed for educational or charitable purposes.

ARTICLE XVII., SECTION 7. [State to assume debts of the Territory.] All debts and liabilities of the Territory of Nevada lawfully incurred, and which remain unpaid at the time of the admission of this State into the Union, shall be assumed by and become the debt of the State of Nevada Provided, That the assumption of such indebtedness shall not prevent the State from contracting the additional indebtedness, as provided in section 3 of article 9 of this Constitution.

ARTICLE VIII., SECTION 10. [County, city, town &c. not to be stockholders, &c.] No county, city, town, or other municipal corporation, shall become a stockholder in any joint-stock company, corporation or association whatever, or loan its credit in aid of any such company, corporation or association, except railroad corporations, companies or associations.

SECTION 8. [Cities and towns to be restricted by general laws]. The Legislature shall provide for the organization of cities and towns by general laws; and restrict their powers of taxation, assessment, borrowing money, contracting debts, and loaning their credit, except for procuring supplies of water.

POPULATION OF STATE.—Though Nevada has some good grazing land, the mining industry, more particularly silver mining, has had chief attention, and, with the decline of this, population has also declined, the Census of 1900 showing a total of only 42,335 persons, as against 45,761 in 1890 and 62,266 in 1880. The famous Comstock lode is located within Nevada, but the silver production of the State has undergone great contraction within the last decade. The full record of population is as follows: The 1900 figures include persons on Indian reservations, not considered in previous aggregates. Of such persons there were 1,594 in 1890 and 6,800 in 1880.

NEW CONSTITUTION.—A new Constitution went into effect in April, 1902. One of its provisions fixes a limit of indebtedness in the case of cities and towns of 18 per cent of the assessed value of real estate, unless the issue be authorized by a majority of the qualified voters. V. 74, p. 741.

STATE DEBT.—For a detailed report of the Virginia debt as it stood prior to 1892, and for the history of the debt settlement made by and between the Virginia Debt Commission and the Bondholders' Committee, see the STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April, 1893, pages 151 and 152. Other items of interest with reference to the Virginia debt will be found in the CHRONICLE as follows: Vol. 56, p. 636, 802; V. 57, p. 155, 190, 565, 733, 950, 1053; V. 58, p. 232, 274, 315, 357.—V. 66, p. 392.—V. 67, p. 333.—V. 68, p. 196, 241; V. 70, p. 1202, 1211; V. 71, p. 408; V. 72, p. 150; V. 75, p. 628; V. 76, p. 446, 770. In January, 1903, an adjustment was effected of the claims of the State against the National Government on account of the War of 1812 and of the county claims for interest and principal on bonds against the State by the National Government. See V. 76, p. 119.

On Jan. 1, 1903, Virginia's debt stood as shown below:

Of the $18,041,463 century bonds, $7,555,000 are coupon, $10,486,600 registered and $2,863 fractional certificates.

The interest on the Century bonds was 2 per cent for the first 10 years (or until July 1, 1901,) and 3 per cent thereafter. Both issues are exempt from taxation.

The Virginia Legislature re-enacted the Funding Act of Feb. 20, 1892, and under its provisions all old Virginia bonds were allowed to be brought in and funded into new Century bonds, upon the same terms as the Olcott settlement, provided they were presented for funding prior to December 31, 1896. By the Act of January 25, 1898, however, another opportunity to fund the bonds was given. By this Act bondholders had until July 1, 1898, to come in and accept the terms, and power was given the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund to extend the time until Dec. 31, 1898. By Act of Feb. 3, 1900, the time was again extended, this time to July 1, 1900, with authority to still further extend it to Jan. 1, 1901. And on Feb. 16, 1901, the Legislature in extra session again extended the time until June 30, 1901. The time was once more extended until Jan. 1, 1903, by the Legislature on Apr. 2, 1902, authority being granted to still further extend the date until Jan. 1, 1904, and the date has been so extended by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund. Bonds funded under any amendment or extension to the Act of Feb. 20, 1892, carry interest from the semi-annual period next preceding the date of funding. Under the old law coupon bonds once converted into registered certificates were not reconvertible into coupon bonds, but under the Acts of 1882 and 1892 coupon and registered bonds are interchangeable.

WEST VIRGINIA CERTIFICATES.—In the settlement of 1871 it was assumed that West Virginia should provide for one-third the principal and interest of the then existing debt, that is $15,239,370 out of the total debt of $45,718,112. To represent, therefore, West Virginia's share of bonds funded "deferred certificates" were issued. All efforts, however, to induce West Virginia to take recognition of these certificates have thus far been unavailing. In 1885 the holders of about $8,000,000 certificates united for the purpose of obtaining a compromise, and deposited their holdings with the Farmers' Loan & Trust Company, which gave its trust receipts therefor. This attempt came to nothing, and in 1890 Messrs. C. Satterthwaite & Sons, of No. 30 Throgmorton Street, London, E. C., started another movement to bring about a settlement.

An adjustment company, with the Mercantile Trust & Deposit Company of Baltimore at its head, was formed late in 1893 for the purpose of making an attempt at the settlement of the West Virginia certificates. See CHRONICLE, Vol. 57, page 819; Vol. 58, pages 51, 314 and 444.

In August, 1898, another movement was started, this time under the leadership of Messrs. Brown Bros. & Co., with the same object in view, and that movement continues actively in progress. The plan provided for ascertaining the exact amount of the old Virginia debt with which West Virginia is justly chargeable (subject to certain limitations), and then compromising that amount at the same percentage at which Virginia compromised the two-thirds of the original Virginia debt, namely 60 per cent for principal and 30¼ per cent for interest. (See the editorial article in STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT for April, 1899.) The Legislature of Virginia in March, 1900, passed a bill authorizing the State Debt Commission to take such action and institute such proceedings as may be deemed proper to protect the State's interests and to bring about a settlement with West Virginia. (V. 70, p. 494.) The original plan has been somewhat amended to meet present requirements; see digest in V. 76, p. 770; wherein will also be found the names of the members of the Advisory Board. Application was made June 3, 1900, and granted by the Governing Committee June 13, 1900, to list Brown Bros. & Co.'s Virginia deferred certificates (representing the originals of the 1871 issue only) on the New York Stock Exchange. The amount listed on April 4, 1903, was $8,716,565, with power to add thereto from time to time as additional certificates may be issued under the plan of settlement On Apr. 1, 1903, the amount deposited was practically three-fourths of the total of all issues outstanding in the hands of the public. It should be remembered, furthermore, that in adjusting the original debt of the State of Virginia it was calculated that about 10 p. c. of the certificates had been either lost or destroyed, and could therefore be eliminated as an actual factor in the adjustment. If similar allowance be made in the present case, it will correspondingly reduce the possible total and will increase the percentage of deposits already in hand to over 82 per cent.

After about three-fourths of the old Virginia bonds had been surrendered, and "deferred certificates" been given to represent West Virginia's one third, under the acts of 1871 and 1879, these acts were repealed. The remaining bonds were refunded under other laws. These laws required a certificate to represent one-third the principal of the old bonds brought in for funding, but gave "non-interest-bearing certificates" to represent one-third the interest on old bonds. The following shows the amounts of each issue.

On Mar. 1, 1903, the sinking fund amounted to $1,393,381.

The educational bonds are not, strictly speaking, a debt of the State. They are irredeemable; the fund is inviolate, and the six per cent semi-annual interest drawn by them is provided for out of the revenue placed to the credit of the sinking fund annually. The amounts are as follows: State bonds, issued Jan. 1, 1870, $1,327,000; county bonds, issued Jan. 1, 1885, $378,946; new school bonds; issued March 12, 1892, $606,650. The $165,000 military bonds are also irredeemable; the interest is paid to the A. & M. College and the State normal school for colored persons. In March, 1903, the State received $1,323,999 from the National Government on account of Civil War interest claims. V. 76, p. 670. This sum is being used to take up redeemable bonds of the State. At this date (April 1, 1903,) $483,000 of the issue due in 1905 have been paid off, leaving 17,000 still outstanding.

Comptroller (term expires Feb. 1, 1905) - Theo. F. King

Legislature meets biennially in odd years on the first Monday in January and sessions are not limited, "but no member shall be paid for more than 75 days of a regular session."

* Constitution says term of office shall be computed from the 15th of January, but these officials being elected by the Legislature are usually allowed to serve a full term from the date of their appointment.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.—The Legislature of 1901 proposed several amendments to the State Constitution, which provide for the election of the Secretary of State, the State Treasurer and the State Comptroller by a direct vote of the people, instead of their being appointed by the Legislature. Another amendment limits indebtedness of cities, counties, towns, taxing districts and municipalities to 10 per cent (including existing indebtedness) of the average of the assessments of the 10 years previous to the incurring of the debt. These resolutions must first be acted upon by the next General Assembly before being submitted to the people.

The debt on which the State is paying interest is as follows.

TOTAL DEBT, Etc.—The 3 per cent bonds in the above table were given in settlement of 6 per cent bonds. This compromise was effected in 1883, but there is still outstanding quite a number of the old bonds. These old bonds were funded at 50c. on the dollar, and to represent fractions the State issued what is known as "scrip." The subjoined statement shows Tennessee's total debt Dec. 19, 1902.

Total interest-bearing debt.....$15,346,300
Estimated amount of bonds yet to be funded..... 675,166

Of the unfunded bonds $335,666 66 are owned by the United States Government. The State will not fund these bonds, it is said, until certain claims are adjusted between the State and the Federal Government.

MEMPHIS.—JOS. J. WILLIAMS, Mayor. W. B. ARMOUR, Secretary.

Memphis is the County seat of Shelby County. A yellow fever epidemic in 1878 rendered the city unable to meet its obligations, and in 1879 the city's charter was repealed and the Taxing District of Shelby County was organized for the purpose of securing a compromise with the bondholders on such terms as the city felt able to make. The courts, however, held that the Taxing District was liable for the entire debt of the city, and a compromise at 50 per cent was then arranged for under the act of March 1883. This act was amended in 1885. The old debt has been all retired and interest payments on the new issues are promptly made. In 1891, by an act of the Legislature, this district was again incorporated as a city.

An annual tax of $1·00 per $1,000 is levied for the retirement of the bonds. A tax sufficient to meet the interest is also required by law.

The funding act of 1883 provides that every part thereof shall be considered a contract between the State, the Taxing District and the bondholders, and no part material to the rights of the bondholders shall be modified while the bonds remain outstanding. The city sets aside $26,000 a year to its sinking fund.

NASHVILLE.—J. M. HEAD, Mayor. J. P. BYRNE, City Recorder.

Nashville is the capital of the State and the county seat of Davidson County.

At an election on Aug. 8, 1901, it was decided to subscribe for $1,000,000 stock of the Nashville & Clarksville RR. One-half of the bonds to be issued for this purpose will be turned over when the road has been built to a certain point and the remaining $500,000 when road is finally completed and in operation. Suit was instituted in the Federal Court to prevent the city from issuing any bonds to the Nashville & Clarksville RR. (See V. 74, p. 1320) and the case is now in the courts. The Legislature of 1903, it is proper to add, passed an Act ratifying the action of the city looking to the issuance of these bonds, but the plaintiff's attorneys do not regard the Act as legal.

Since this sinking fund Act went into effect, Jan. 1, 1900, $242,000 of the bonded debt has been paid.

Legislature meets biennially in odd years on the Wednesday after the first Monday in January, and there is no limit to length of sessions, but if sessions are continued longer than 60 days members "shall serve without compensation."

STATE DEBT.—The old debt, excepting such as is not recognized, has mostly been funded under the funding laws of 1879, the time prescribed for the exchange having been extended to January 1, 1905. These laws provided for the issue of (1) consolidated 4 p. c. bonds due in 1910 to fund old ante-war bonds at 40 per cent of face value, "New" railroad bonds recognized as valid at 25 per cent, and bonds of 1866 and 1868 at 15 per cent, nothing being given for overdue coupons; and (2) for new consolidated 6 per cent bonds due in 1919, for which the North Carolina RR. construction bonds were made exchangeable at par, holders of construction bonds abating $240 of overdue interest on each $1,000 bond. The new bonds, both 4s and 6s, carry tax-receivable coupons, and are exempt from "all State, county or corporate taxation or assessment, direct or indirect, general or special."

An amendment to the State Constitution passed by the Legislature in 1879 and ratified by popular vote in 1880, forbids the General Assembly to pay or recognize as valid the following bonds: Special tax bonds $11,366,000; bonds to Chatham RR., 1868, $1,030,000, and to Williamston & Tarboro RR., $150,000; Penitentiary bonds of 1868 $44,000. The special tax bonds were in 3 classes, class 1 bearing the coupon of April 1869 and since; class 2 bearing the coupon of Oct. 1869; class 3 bearing the coupon of April, 1870 Holders of the special tax bonds brought suit to establish the validity of their bonds and the case was decided in favor of the State.

The recognized debt which had been adjusted up to Dec. 1, 1902, stood as follows:

LOANS— NAME AND PURPOSE—	Interest. P. Ot.	Payable.	Principal. When Due.	Outstand'g.
Construction bonds.....c	6	A & O	Apr. 1, 1919	$2,720,000
Renewal bonds.....c	4	J & J	July 1, 1910	3,399,150
Bonds of 1899—
Prison debt bond.....	4	J & J	Jan. 1, 1909	110,000
Prison farm bonds.....	4	J & J	Jan. 1, 1909	60,000

PAR VALUE OF BONDS.—The consolidated 4s are $50, $100, $500 and $1,000; the consolidated 6s $1,000 each. The prison bonds are for $500 and $1,000 each.

INTEREST on the consolidated 4s and 6s is payable in New York at the National Park Bank and in Raleigh.

TOTAL DEBT RECOGNIZED AND TOTAL ADJUSTED.—The funding act of Mar. 4, 1879, has been extended to Jan. 1, 1905. The recognized fundable debt which has been funded and the recognized fundable debt which has not been funded are as follows:

	Funded.	Not funded
Consols 6 per cent.....	$2,720,000	$22,000
Consols 4 per cent.....	3,399,150	216,620

To the foregoing we should add the further fact that the State does not have to raise money for the interest on the six per cent bonds for the reason that the lease of the North Carolina Railroad provides a fund for the payment of the interest thereon, and the State holds three millions in the stock of the road, which if sold would much more than pay the principal. In addition the State holds other stocks and 66⅔ bonds to the value of $1,269,600; total, $4,269,800.

ASSESSED VALUATION.—The State's assessed valuation (about 66⅔ per cent of cash value) has been as follows:

Years.	Real Estate.	Personal.	Railroads.	Total.

HISTORY OF DEBT.—For history of South Carolina's debt from 1794 to 1893 see the STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April, 1893, pages 163 and 164. Attorney-General Griggs, of the United States, in July, 1900, brought suit against the State of South Carolina to recover on $125,000 principal and $123,750 over-due interest on bonds issued in 1856 to complete the State House. Congress, however, by the Sundry Civil Act of June 6, 1900, repealed the Act of 1899 under which the suit was brought, and the action was discontinued. See V. 71, p. 875. The bonds matured in 1881, and principal and interest were never paid. See V. 71, p. 147. They came into the possession of the United States, but South Carolina refuses to recognize them. The State debt on January 1, 1903, consisted of the following items:

This is the result of a reduction in royalties from $1·05 per ton in 1886 to 25 cents per ton in 1900. The revenue from this source in 1902 was about $25,717.

HISTORY OF DEBT.—The details of Georgia's early history in debt-making will be found in the STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT for April, 1893, pages 165 and 166. The debt of the State is now being steadily reduced, $100,000 being devoted each year to that purpose. Moreover the State Constitution adopted in December, 1877, provides against the creation of any bonded debt "except to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or defend the State in time of war," $200,000 being made the limit for floating indebtedness which may be temporarily incurred in case of deficiency in the revenues.

COUNTIES, CITIES, &c.—The State Constitution of 1877, Article VII, Section VII, limits the indebtedness to seven per cent of the assessed valuation. The paragraph reads as follows: "The debt hereafter incurred by any county, municipal incorporation or political division of this State, except as in this constitution provided for, shall not exceed seven per centum of the assessed value of all taxable property therein, and no such county, municipalities or division, shall incur any new debt, except for a temporary loan or loans to supply casual deficiencies of revenue, not to exceed one-fifth of one per centum of the assessed value of taxable property therein, without the assent of two-thirds of the qualified voters thereof, at an election for that purpose to be held as may be prescribed by law; but any city the debt of which does not exceed seven per centum of the assessed value of the taxable property at the time of the adoption of this Constitution may be authorized by law to increase, at any time, the amount of said debt, three per centum upon such assessed valuation." Paragraph 2 of the same article and section is as follows: Paragraph 2, County and city bonds, how paid. Any county, municipal corporation or political division of this State which shall incur any bonded indebtedness under the provisions of this Constitution, shall, at or before the time of so doing, provide for the assessment and collection of an annual tax, sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of said debt, within thirty years from the date of the incurring of said indebtedness."

MUNICIPAL BOND ISSUES.—In December, 1897, a very important law governing issues of bonds by counties, municipalities and other civil divisions in Georgia was passed. This law provides for having the Superior Court determine the validity of proposed bond issues, and judgment in the affirmative having been given, the bonds thereafter can never be called in question. See CHRONICLE of January 15, 1898.

No bonds can be lawfully issued except for the purpose of retiring old issues as they fall due. No obligation of this city has ever been repudiated or scaled.

CITY PROPERTY.—The city owns its water works, valued in 1903 at $1,000,000, the Augusta Canal, valued at $2,000,000, and $300,000 in other good real estate within city limits. The net annual income from water rents (canal and water works) was reported in 1902 as $100,420 and increases yearly from new industries and new extensions of water mains. This income more than meets the interest ($84,565 in 1902) on the bonded debt. The city also receives $11,600 yearly for certain railway franchises.

ASSESSED VALUATION.—The city's assessed valuation and tax rate have been as given below. In 1897 the assessed valuation of all real estate was reduced 10 per cent and in 1898 and in 1900 5 per cent was deducted. Assessment is said to be about 80 p. c. of actual value.

* This is date when the Mississippi Constitutional Convention completed its labors, the Act establishing the Territorial Government of Alabama having provided that the Act was to commence and go into force when the Constitutional Convention of Mississippi had "formed "a Constitution and State Government for that part of the Mississippi "Territory lying west of the territory herein described."

† Term is four years from time of installation in office.

HISTORY OF DEBT.—For history of Alabama's State debt see STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April, 1894, page 168. Under an Act of the State Legislature approved Feb. 18, 1895, all bonds authorized to be exchanged under the Act approved Feb. 23, 1876, were barred if not exchanged by July 1, 1896. The amount thus barred was $185,400. By another Act also approved Feb. 18, 1895, and amended Feb. 16, 1899, the Governor has power to refund the bonds issued under the Act of Feb. 23, 1876 (Series "A," "B" and "C" below), with new securities bearing such rates of interest as may be deemed best, and maturing in not more than 50 years from date of issue.

INTEREST—Interest is payable in New York at the American Exchange National Bank and in Montgomery.

TOTAL DEBT.—Total bonded debt Oct. 1, 1902, $9,357,600. Balance on hand Oct. 1, 1902, $729,351 86. Outstanding warrants, $19,019.

DEBT AND TAX LIMITATIONS.—A revised Constitution was adopted at the election held Nov. 11, 1901, and became effective Nov. 28, 1901. The new instrument makes radical changes in relation to debt and taxation, an outline of which was furnished in an editorial in our STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of October, 1901. We have only room to indicate a few of its features.

STATE DEBT.—Under Section 213 (Article XI) the State is prohibited from creating any new debt, except to repel invasion or suppress insurrection. This prohibition, however, does not apply in the case of bonds to refund old issues or temporary loans to meet deficiences, the latter, though, being limited to $300,000. Section 214 limits taxation for State purposes to sixty-five one hundredths of one per cent.

The sections relating to taxation of counties and municipalities are also given in Article XI., being numbered 215, 216 and 219. They are very lengthy and will be found in full in the editorial above referred to.

LIMIT OF INDEBTEDNESS.—The debt incurring power of counties and municipalities in the new Constitution are contained in Sections 222 to 226 inclusive, forming part of Article XII.

BOND ISSUES TO BE VOTED.—Under Section 222 all bonds proposed to be issued under general laws must first be authorized by a majority vote of the qualified voters of the county, city, town, village or other political sub-division desiring to issue such securities. There are exceptions to this, however. See the section in full in the above-mentioned editorial.

COUNTIES are limited by Section 224 to 3½ per cent of the assessed valuation of property. This limitation does not affect any debt existing at the time of the adoption of the constitution in excess of 3½ per cent, either created or authorized by existing laws to be created. Such counties already indebted in excess of 3½ per cent are permitted to incur an additional debt of 1½ per cent of the assessed valuation. Counties are allowed to fund or refund any existing indebtedness.

CITIES, TOWNS, etc., having a population of less than 6,000 are limited to 5 per cent of the assessed value of property, with an additional 3 per cent for water works, gas or electric light plants or sewerage. This limitation does not affect any debt now authorized by law to be created or any temporary loans to be paid within one year, made in anticipation of the collection of taxes, not exceeding one-fourth of the annual revenues of such city or town.

CITIES AND TOWNS of 6,000 or over inhabitants, also GADSDEN, ENSLEY, DECATUR and NEW DECATUR, are limited in their debt-making powers to 7 per cent of the assessed valuation. The following-described classes of indebtedness are not to be considered in figuring the debt limit: temporary loans, to be paid within one year, made in anticipation of the collection of taxes, and not exceeding one-fourth of the general revenues; bonds or other obligations already issued, or which may hereafter be issued for the purpose of acquiring, providing or constructing school houses, water-works and sewers; and obligations incurred and bonds issued for street or sidewalk improvements, where the cost of the same, in whole or in part, is to be assessed against the property abutting said improvements; provided, that the proceeds of all obligations issued as herein provided, in excess of said 7 per cent, shall not be used for any purpose other than that for which said obligations were issued. Nothing contained in this Article is to prevent the funding or refunding of existing indebtedness. Nor is the Section to apply to the cities of SHEFFIELD and TUSCUMBIA.

Section 226 provides that no city, town or village whose present indebtedness exceeds the limitation imposed by this Constitution shall be allowed to become indebted in any further amount, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, until such indebtedness shall be reduced within such limit; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any municipality except the city of GADSDEN from issuing bonds already authorized by law; provided, further, this Section shall not apply to the cities of SHEFFIELD and TUSCUMBIA.

ASSESSED VALUATION.—The following table shows the valuation of property, rate of taxation and amount of taxes, &c.

1902	$296,135,540 00	5½ Mills	$1,628,745·10

Bonds are tax exempt. $306,400 of the new bonds have been exchanged (March 1, 1902, for the same amount of old ones. BIRMINGHAM.—G. C. ENGSTFELD, Treasurer.

Birmingham is in Jefferson County. In 1899 an amendment to the State Constitution was passed permitting an increase of one-half per cent in the tax rate, the proceeds to be applied exclusively to the payment of interest on the city's bonds and for the creation of a sinking fund. On Aug. 13, 1895, the old bondholders by arrangement with the city agreed for a term of five years to defer their claim for one-half of the interest coupons. The whole amount withheld, however, together with 5 per cent interest thereon, was paid on Aug. 13, 1900, and the original contract with the bondholders thus fully complied with. Since the latter date all interest has been paid regularly and in full.—See CHRONICLE, Vol. 69, p. 194.

INTEREST on funding bonds is payable in New York City at the Mercantile National Bank; in Mobile at the First National Bank; on the water and sewer bonds and the improvement bonds at the American Exchange National Bank, New York, and First National Bank, Mobile. The funding bonds carried 4 per cent interest to Jan. 1, 1901, and 5 per cent since that date.

TOTAL BONDED DEBT Sept. 1, 1902, was $2,452,878, not including the water or improvement bonds. Of the funding bonds of 1881 about $250,000 are endorsed with the statement that they represent the purchase money for certain wharf property and are secured by a vendor's lien on said property. An Act of the Legislature requires the city to levy a tax of ¾ of one per cent on its valuation to provide for the payment of principal and interest of the bonds of 1881. After the payment of interest the surplus remaining from this tax is applied to the redemption of the bonds, after drawing by lot, at par, bonds so redeemed being canceled.

*Further provision for the Government of the Territory, then known as the Territory of Orleans, was made by the Act of March 2, 1805, the duration of the Act of March 26, 1804, having originally been confined to the period of one year from October 1, 1804, "and to the end of the next session of Congress which may happen thereafter."

HISTORY OF DEBT.—For history of the State debt of Louisiana see STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April 1894, pages. 171 and 172.

Debt on which the State is paying interest is about as follows:

LOANS— NAME OR PURPOSE,	Interest. P. Ct.	Interest. Payable.	Principal. When Due.	Principal. Outstand'g.
Consol. 7 per cent bonds of 1874, stamped 4 per cent....	4s	J & J	Jan. 1, 1914	$11,800

Consolidated (constitutional) bonds of 1880.....	4s	J & J	Jan. 1, 1914	101,700

DEBT LIMITATIONS STATE, AND MUNICIPAL.—For debt limitations under the Constitution adopted May 12, 1898, see editorial columns of the State and City SUPPLEMENT for October, 1898. The limitation for municipalities is 10 per cent upon the assessed value of the property of the municipal corporation, parish or drainage district.

PAR VALUE OF BONDS—The consolidated 7s, stamped 4 per cent are for $100, $500 and $1,000. The Constitutional bonds for $5, etc. See CHRONICLE, Vol. 68, p. 987.

INTEREST is payable by Winslow, Lanier & Co., New York City and by the fiscal agents of the State in New Orleans and Baton Rouge.

FISCAL AGENTS.—The fiscal agents of the State are the New Orleans Nat. B'k, the Louisiana Nat. B'k and the Hibernia Bank & Trust Co. at New Orleans, and the Bank of Baton Rouge and First National Bank at Baton Rouge.

TOTAL DEBT—The subjoined statement shows Louisiana's total bonded debt on Mar. 1, 1902.

Total bonded debt bearing interest	$10,877,800
Floating Debt—
Baby bonds and certificates (act of 1880) exclusive of coupons	912,058
Floating debt, warrant and interest account	232,988

The baby bonds are 3 per cents and were due in 1886. They were issued to fund certain obligations of charitable institutions. No interest has been paid on them since January, 1885, but provision has been made to pay the principal of the bonds at not more than 50 p. c.—See CHRONICLE, Vol. 68, p. 987.

In September, 1889, it was discovered that a number of bonds had been fraudulently issued. Part of these were subsequently recovered, but $373,600 consols so issued ($303,600 being consols of 1874 and $70,000 Constitutional bonds) are still outstanding. The State considers them "null and void," and they are therefore not included in the amount outstanding above. There are also $421,935 fraudulently issued baby bonds outstanding.

There are moreover old bonds not recognized, and hence not fundable, amounting to $3,953,000. These include New Orleans Mobile & Texas 8 per cent bonds, endorsed, $875,000; 8 per cent State bonds issued to said road, $2,500,000; 8 per cent bonds issued to the N. O. Mobile & Chattanooga RR. $70,000; 7·30 per cent bonds issued to the Mississippi & Mexican Gulf Ship Canal Co. $260,000, etc., etc.

ASSESSED VALUATION—The assessed valuation is estimated at about 37 per cent of the actual value. The State tax (per $1,000) for 1902 was $6·00:

NEW ORLEANS. } PAUL CAPDEVIELLE, Mayor. V. TUJAGUE, Comptroler.

New Orleans is co-extensive with the parish of Orleans. An amendment to the Louisiana Constitution authorizing the city to refund its debt at a lower rate of interest was adopted in 1892, and the city has issued 4 per cent 50-year bonds to the amount of $10,000,000, thus enabling it to pay all its maturing loans and all those upon which it had option. The amendment provides that the interest tax collected in excess of requirements shall be divided between city schools and city improvements. The new Louisiana Constitution, in effect May 12, 1898, confirmed these arrangements.

On June 6, 1899, the city voted a special tax of 2 mills for water, sewer and drainage purposes, intended to provide for an issue of from 12 to 16 millions bonds. As this required an amendment to the State Constitution, the Legislature, in special session, passed a bill for its submission to a vote of the people of the State. At this election the amendment was approved and the bonds were awarded in Dec., 1900. These bonds, however, will not be issued in one lump sum, but will be put out as the improvement progresses. Up to July 1, 1902. $2,400,000 had been issued. In March, 1903, the validity of this Act was tested in the Civil District Court and affirmed; V. 76, p. 770. Case will probably be taken to the Supreme Court.

PREMIUM BONDS.—The premium bonds ($20 each) receive no interest till drawn by lot for payment, and then they receive principal with simple interest from July 15, 1875. They also get a premium if they happen to draw a prize, 2,352 prizes aggregating $100,000 being distributed yearly among the drawn bonds. From 1892 to 1895 inclusive 21,000 bonds (par value $420,000) were paid each year, in two instalments of 10,500 bonds each, on January 15 and July 15; since 1895 bonds to the number of 10,000 are paid semi-annually—20,000 bonds annually. There are two drawings to determine the bonds payable July 15 in each year, and they take place January 31 and April 15 next preceding. The drawings to determine the bonds payable January 15 take place July 31 and October 15.

The drawings to determine which bonds shall receive prizes (ranging from $20 to $5,000) occur just before the bonds are paid. Drawn premium bonds are receivable by the city for all dues, licenses, taxes and debts of any description at their face value and interest.

HISTORY OF DEBT.—For history of the Arkansas State debt see State and City Supplement of April, 1894, page 173. By Act of Congress approved April 29, 1898, a compromise was effected between the United States and the State. In accordance with the terms of this settlement the United States authorities on May 27, 1898, delivered to the State Arkansas bonds and coupons amounting to $1,505,160, and carrying besides a large sum of overdue interest. This operation wiped out the entire debt of the United States against the State except $160,000, which has since been paid.

REFUNDING.—Under the Legislative Act of 1899 the entire debt has been refunded by an issue of 3 per cent 30-year bonds, denominations $500 and $1,000, except $15,000 in bonds of 1869 and 1870, and the estimated interest thereon, amounting to $24,300, which have not been presented for refunding. All valid 6 per cent funding bonds were called for payment Dec. 1, 1901, those not presented up to that time being now null and void.

The total amount of bonds outstanding Oct. 1, 1902, was $1,256,000, of which $1,118,500 are held by the State's School Fund; $102,500 by the permanent endowment fund of the University of Arkansas and $35,000 by individual parties.

TOTAL DEBT, Etc.—The bonded debt on Oct. 1, 1902, consisted only of refunding bonds (referred to above) as follows:

MUNICIPAL AND COUNTY BOND LAW.—A State law approved in 1893 has done much to widen the market for new Texas municipal loans. At present before any bond can be issued by a municipality or county it must receive the certificate of the Attorney-General that it is a lawful obligation. It must then be registered in the office of the State Comptroller, and when the bond is so issued its validity cannot be questioned except on the grounds of fraud or forgery. The text of the law will be found in the STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT of April, 1895, page 178.

Where the fact is known to us we have marked with a star (*) in the returns below the issues put out prior to the enactment of the above law.

A law went into effect Aug. 26, 1899, compelling counties and incorporated towns and cities to submit propositions for the issuance of bonds [all except "funding bonds issued or to be issued of any valid outstanding bonds of said county, town or city;" also excepting bond issues for less than $2,000, when "issued for the purpose of repairing buildings or structures, for the building of which bonds are allowed to be issued,"] to a vote of the qualified taxpayers before the issue can be submitted to the Attorney-General for approval as required by the law of 1893—V. 69, p. 509.

POPULATION.—The population of Texas has been as follows:

1900.....3,048,710	1880.....1,591,749	1860.....604,215
1890.....2,235,523	1870.....818,579	1850.....212,592

Of the total population in 1900, 620,722 were blacks, which compares with 492,837 in 1890, 393,384 in 1880, 253,475 in 1870, 182,931 in 1860 and 58,558 in 1850. It will be observed that the proportion of the colored race has greatly diminished, the ratio for 1900 being only 20·4 per cent, against 22·04 per cent in 1890, 24·71 per cent in 1880 and larger percentages in previous decades.

Cities, Counties and Towns IN THE STATE OF TEXAS.

NOTE.—For statements not given in alphabetical order, see "Additional Statements" at the end of this State.

AUSTIN.—R. E. WHITE, Mayor. JOHN O. JOHNSON, City Clerk.

This is the capital of the State and the county seat of Travis County. $52,500 of General Revenue bonds issued prior to 1890 are in litigation. See CHRONICLE, Vol. 69, p. 91. The Jan., 1900, interest on the water and light bonds was not paid when due—see CHRONICLE, V. 70, p. 46. On June 4 the City Council, however, authorized an appropriation for the payment of overdue interest for the quarters ending January 1 and April 1, 1900—see CHRONICLE V. 71, p. 45. Since April, 1900, no interest has been paid. The Austin dam, water-works, electric light and power houses, for the building of which the water and light bonds below were issued, were destroyed by the disastrous floods that visited Texas in April, 1900.—V. 70, p. 755. An adjustment of this debt on the basis of $1,492,000 new bonds bearing 3% for 5 years, 4% for the next 10 years and 5% for the final 15 years has been reached between the city and the bondholders' committee. For details see V. 73, p. 459. Up to Jan. 1, 1903, $1,185,000 had been refunded, being portions of all issues except the 6 per cent revenue bonds. Some of the holders of the old issues who refused to agree to the adjustment brought suit to compel payment of interest on their bonds, and March 5, 1902, were accorded a decision in their favor. V. 74, p. 590.

FORT WORTH.— T. J. POWELL, Mayor. J. J. NUNNALLY, Auditor.

This city is the county seat of Tarrant County. The validity of some of the city bonds was the subject of litigation, but recent decisions of the Court of Civil Appeals confirms their legality. See Vol. 66, p. 775, Vol. 67, p. 1072, and Vol. 76, p. 223. The city failed to pay its interest due in September and November, 1899 (see V. 60, p. 711), but in January, 1900, paid all arrears. In December, 1900, an appeal was made to holders of the bonds to consent to refunding the debt into new 4s and a resolution to aid in the process was passed by the City Council. See Chronicle V. 72, p. 100. The Legislature of 1901 authorized $1,883,000 4 p. c. 40-year bonds to take up the old issues, and up to March 6, 1903, $420,000 had been so refunded. On March 14, 1903, however, an arrangement was made whereby all past-due interest was to be paid in full. V. 76, p. 667.

GALVESTON.—I. H. Kempner, Cmr Fin. & Rev.

Galveston, the leading seaport of Texas, is the county seat of Galveston County, Texas. The adjustment of its bonded debt growing out of default occasioned by the hurricane of Sept. 8, 1900, has progressed satisfactorily, and has been accepted by a large number of bondholders. On the bonds which have come into the compromise interest is being paid promptly. The compromise provides for interest to be paid at the rate of 2½ per cent per annum for five years, which was formally recommended to the bondholders by a committee of their number, of which the Hon. Chas. S. Fairchild was Chairman. Both the city and county are working in concert to devise the absolute protection to the city and port, and a sea wall costing a million and a half is being constructed by the county, bonds having been issued and practically all taken locally or by local interests. The work is now in progress and should be completed within twelve to eighteen months. The city then contemplates raising the site by filling in streets and private property in an issue of bonds to be specially secured by donation from the State of Texas, which has already been made, covering a period of fifteen years. In March, 1903, a decision was rendered declaring void that portion of the city charter providing for 5 commissioners, three of which appointed by the Governor; V. 76, p. 770. Legislature will probably amend the charter so that all five Commissioners will be elected by the people.

RAIL BONDS.

Many readers know the general fact that electricity refuses to go from one point to another unless it can return; that is, it insists upon a circuit. The substance of which the return path consists may be of poor conductivity, or of insufficient size, or of imperfect continuity; but the current gets through somehow, always choosing the path of least resistance, which, electrically speaking, is always the shortest way. Put sufficient pressure behind the current and it will overleap a gap just as a running jump may carry a man over one which he could not cover from a stand. But if the path is difficult, either by the nature of the material or by the insufficient size of the conductor, or because there are some little gaps like cracks across (thus furnishing miniature chasms), there is a hindrance, and heat is produced. A current with a heavy pressure will quickly burn out a wire which is very much too small. The fact that a spot of imperfect conductivity makes an "arc," is utilized to produce electric light; the same fact that interrupted conductivity is a disturbance, sets up the destructive process called electrolysis where the conditions favor that; the same principle is utilized to great profit in many electro-chemical industries—somewhat as friction, always inevitable and always opposed as an enemy, is really an indispensable aid in other aspects.

In the case of electric railroads, the necessary return path is obtained by using the rails. But the rail, while making up measurably in size what it lacks in conductivity, has joints, and these joints must be bridged by some connection. The connecting link is called a bond. As copper has seven times the conductivity of a steel rail of the same section, it is the material employed. Copper wires, twisted into the form of rope or cable, and with solid ends or studs which are fastened into holes in the ends of the rails, are used for this purpose. Instead of jumping across the rail joints, as it might do if the pressure (which would then be equivalent to a great waste of power) were sufficient to force it, the current leaves the rail for the copper and goes around the joint, returning to the rail on the other side. There must be ample conductivity in the bond itself. There must be a close contact between bond and rail, without danger of electrolysis or of working loose. There must be enough elasticity to absorb the shocks which might gradually work the bond loose from the rail or even break it in two. There must also be protection for the bond from thieves, who would not hesitate to wrench it off and sell it for junk if it were so placed that they could get at it. These conditions must be met by a good bond.

One form of bond is made by casting into its terminal or knob-like end which enters the hole in the rail two hardened bronze plugs; when in place, a compressor tool forces these two opposite plugs a quarter inch towards each other, thus expanding the terminal within the hole and making it turn over like a rivet-head on the outside. Another pattern founds its especial claim on being a one-piece bond, the copper wire cable being bent over, and its ends being finally forced into the form of a short round knob by pressure in a die; the claim is that as the conductivity of drawn copper is greater than that of cast copper, this form is superior to any in which the terminal is a separate piece and attached, and also that where there is no joint there certainly cannot be an imperfect one. Another—which claims to produce the needed perfect molecular union by fusing the terminals to the flexible portion—uses the term "protected" as its trade title, making a strong point of so placing its bond under the fish-plate which fastens the rails together that thieves cannot get at it. This pattern of bond is made in a great variety of forms to suit varying conditions, and among these forms is one with flat bands instead of round twisted wires; for this style the claim is made that it yields especially well to the expansion and contraction of the rails lengthwise.

The rail-bond, practically a portion of the track over which the owner and non-owner of securities of electric roads travel with probably no thought about it, is thus an article which involves practical questions. Its perfection or imperfection has much to do with the comparative efficiency of the operation and the conservation or the waste of power, all of which is sure to get into the financial results.

IMPROVED TRACKLESS TROLLEYS.

In a previous SUPPLEMENT mention was made of the trackless trolley lines in operation abroad and of the short one lately built in the town of Franklin, N. H. Since absence of the rails deprives the current of its usual return path through them, a second overhead wire and a second pole and trolley are necessary, the current coming in to the motor by one wire and trolley and returning by the other. There is an instance of employing two overhead wires for the complete circuit when tracks are used, but this will probably never become general, for there is some special awkwardness in keeping the trolleys on, as the cars do not maintain a fixed line and must turn out for one another.

Yet this is subject to improvement in mechanical details, and an interesting and practical improvement has already been devised which will soon be put in operation in some New England cities. The small clips or brackets which attach directly to the two parallel overhead wires are bent and face each other, so that the trolley wheels run on the inner and opposite surfaces of the wires instead of on the bottom; the contact is thus on the sides of the wires instead of underneath them, and these two contact sides of the two wires face each other. The trolley wheels are also placed horizontally at the ends of their poles instead of vertically, as usual, and they press outwardly against the inner sides of the pair of wires. This arrangement can be indicated graphically in this manner (o- -o). Here the letter o stands for each wire, seen in cross section, and the hyphen stands for the trolley wheel, placed horizontally, pressing outwardly against the wire and running on the side of it instead of on the bottom.

The result of this ingeniously contrived horizontal contact is that when the car leaves the position directly under the wires and goes to one or the other side the trolley wheels shift around to another portion of the surface of the wires and are not inclined to leave them. This flexibility is limited by the length of the poles. When they are of the usual length a car can go anywhere on a road of 20 to 22 feet in width and can wind its way around and among wagons.

Another device is intended to facilitate getting the trolley on the wire. The small yoke in which the small wheel is carried has an arm extending five or six inches vertically downward below the wheel, and the cord is attached to the end of this extension. By pulling on a third cord the conductor or motorman "pinches" the ends of the trolley poles towards each other and also elevates them until they are between the two wires; on releasing them they spread apart of themselves and come up against the wires about at haphazard. If the cords are against the wires (as they are likely to be) a simple pull downward brings the extensions against them and a further pull slides the grooved wheels into place on the wires. This is done almost automatically.

The device for switching the trolleys from one line to another is equally ingenious. Ordinarily, the track switch turns the car and the trolley follows because the car pulls it; but the double trolley requires some special arrangement. Where a branch like a Y joins the main track at an angle, one wire at the exact place of junction has a short piece in it which is hinged like a gate and is held closed by a spring, so that the main line is continuous. When a car approaches from the branch to enter the main line, one trolley strikes this switch-gate and pushes it until its end makes contact with the opposite main line wire, while the other trolley rolls around the "corner"; when the trolleys have passed, the spring restores the gate to its former position. Over the main line in either direction, and from the branch into the main line, the arrangement works of itself, for going from the main line into the branch the gate must be opened by hand, although some further arrangement may perhaps make this unnecessary.

Even with the fact before us that the automobile has attained railroad speed and much more than regular railroad speed on broad and exceedingly good highways, it is not reasonable to suppose that high speed can ever be regularly had without tracks; hence the trackless trolley must remain limited to rather low speed and short lines. Yet this does not prohibit it from attaining great usefulness in pioneer and auxiliary service.

ELECTRIC LOCOMOTIVES IN INDUSTRIAL SERVICE.

While the electric locomotive is awaiting the issue of its rivalry for the larger service, it is doing some subordinate work in freight hauling on small lines for private industrial uses; this is in some respects unlike the quite important business of the trolley as a merchandise carrier. A Berlin concern (Arthur Koppel) has been for six years past engaged in constructing these small machines and installations, which are in use at sugar works, glass works, cement works and many other industrial plants. The most interesting feature of these is their adaptability to circumstances and their semi-portable character. Accumulators have been used, but are not advisable except when the circumstances compel—for instance, in mines, where the emission of sparks at the contact between trolley and wire might be dangerous.

The usual overhead construction is followed, with a light wooden mast which carries a bracket; but there is an ingenious and more portable arrangement which sets up a U-shaped girder, inverted, with its ends fastened to an extra-long tie, which is placed under the rails and is held down by their weight. These little frames having been placed a few hundred feet apart, the feed wire is attached to the arch of the U; it is placed there by being unrolled from a wooden drum mounted on a special wagon, the wire unwinding (and being drawn to tension) as the wagon is pushed along the rails. These small engines are from four to twelve horse-power, and are worked over tracks laid without regard to grading down. On steep grades they are fitted with an electric brake which transforms the momentum into electric energy directed to the task of stoppage.

The Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company is using a small locomotive of the mining type to haul coal and ashes for its power plant. The Hawaiian Electric Company (which must be interesting in industrial work) is using one to haul sugar cane from the plantations to the grinder. A larger one is in use on lumber trains at Georgetown, S. C., by the Atlantic Coast Lumber Company. A still larger one, having eight wheels and two motors, is used by the Carnegie Steel Company to haul freight trains. Thus there seems to be some steady progress in development of electric power in this direction.

AGGRESSIVENESS IN ELECTRIC ROADS.

The most interesting present process in electric railroading is its stretching out after distance—from being merely local street-surface roads becoming urban, then interurban, and so gradually growing in size, importance and aggressiveness. The electric locomotive may displace the steam one—that is a problem of effectiveness and economy, and any prediction of the result would be rash. It is an interesting course to watch, but the extension of electric roads per se is apparently a more advanced one.

From Springfield, Worcester, Providence, and Boston rather more than from New York, and from Indianapolis, Detroit, and Chicago more than in the East, passenger electric roads radiate for moderate distances. One can go (barring a few gaps here and there) between Boston and New York by trolley, and even as far as Chicago, and narratives of such trips have appeared in several periodicals, this appearance showing their pioneer character. These trips are tourist and experimental, not traveling. The fact that a series of little strips of track join each other over quite long distances does not make a through line. At the outset, it is evident that electric roads, mainly single-tracked and loosely laid on or closely along existing highways, following their grades and sharp curves, cannot constitute a railroad in the modern sense. They are interesting, often picturesquely attractive, and very useful locally; they render a valuable service, and are worth much attention in their own class. But the electric roads which count must be of thorough modern construction and must have their own private right of way.

There are already several pieces of such road, of which the most notable are the Union Traction Company's of Indiana and the Aurora Elgin & Chicago. The former is an overhead trolley, mostly single-tracked, operated in connection with an interesting telephone system, and claiming maximum speeds of 40 to 60 miles. The other is even more remarkable. It was opened six months ago, beginning at the moderate speed of 27½ miles, but the aim is to run at 40 on local service with stops three miles apart, and at 65 maximum; the plan looks even to 80 or 100 and thus to contributing towards the working-out of the problem of real high speeds. The road is a third-rail road, and it is proposed to run the cars from a stand to a rate of 50 miles in not more than 30 seconds. Users of the Manhattan Elevated cannot have failed to notice how much greater is the "pick up" or attainment of the regular speed since the electric motor replaced the steam locomotive. Quickness of acceleration is a characteristic of electricity; yet the above rate seems startling.

The Elgin road is largely double-tracked and the single-tracked portions have long sidings and were built with the intent of doubling. If it were practicable to reproduce cuts of some of its culverts and masonry bridges, they would show the solidity of the construction; the cars also follow regular types (including specimens of parlor and sleeping) and the extra rail is all which visibly distinguishes this from what is now understood by the best modern railroad practice. Of course, the intended results could not be attainable otherwise.

This road, perhaps the most highly developed of all as a piece of construction, is only 35 miles long from Chicago to Aurora, but the like process is going on in many places. The Lake Shore Electric, which is a quite close parallel, announced a cut a year ago of a little more than one-third on the steam rate over the 115 miles between Cleveland and Toledo and one of nearly one-half between Cleveland and Norwalk. In most cases the lower rate has an offset in the greater time consumed thus far, but frequency of service and convenience of access modify this offset somewhat. Thus, two steam roads had the travel over the 10 miles between St. Paul and Minneapolis, giving an hourly service, and making the actual interval a half hour; the fare was 30 cents single, 50 cents round trip and 15 cents each way to commuters. The electric road came in, reducing the fare to 10 cents each way. The running time was some 20 minutes more; but the trips were fully three times as frequent, transfers to connecting lines were given, and the cars could be taken at any corner of the principal streets in the business districts instead of only at one or two depots. Time was thus saved in one way while lost in another, and the lower fare and greater convenience gave the electric the business.

What we call trunk lines perform a distinctive service of railroads—quick movement between large and distant centres. A permanent service hardly less in aggregate and certain to have an almost indefinite expansion, is the feeder service, for which electric roads are especially suited. There is some incompatibility between through and local traffic on trunk lines as there is between passenger and freight; and if things were always feasible because they are desirable we should have distinct lines for these several sorts of traffic. In construction, operative methods and grasp for traffic, the electric roads—which have got past the limitation suggested by "broomstick train"—are approaching the steam roads. There has been some overdoing, naturally; but the tendency to unification is clear.

Yet there is no occasion for uneasiness about present or possible competition. The steam roads are observant, and are free to use the new system themselves as well as to dispose of parallels by the old method of absorption. For example, the Boston & Maine recently built and opened an electric line from Concord to Manchester, and the New York & New Haven, which has long been threatened with paralleling, has used both these methods. The rivalry will work itself out peaceably.

AUTOMATIC BLOCK CLOSING.

The disaster on the Central Railroad of New Jersey, a month ago, recalls the similar one in the Park Avenue tunnel a year ago. Why the signals failed to be seen, or, if seen, why they were not obeyed, may never be certainly known; the ascertained fact is that the human factor somehow failed in both cases.

On single-track roads operation is usually by telegraph and train order; when collision occurs it is by failure of the human factor, either by omitting to send the required order or by sending it erroneously, or by misunderstanding or disobeying it when received. On the most important double-track roads the block system is used, the line being divided into a series of short sections or blocks. When a train enters one of these it is closed (by signal) against any following one until the first train has passed from the block into the next. As a train approaches a block, the signal shows either "safety" or "danger;" so long as there is no hitch in operation, the danger signal not failing to show when it should, and the engineer not for any reason running by the signal, there is at least the length of a block between trains and collision is plainly impossible.

But sight and hearing, the sense of comprehension and the prompt action in response to both all have their limits. The human factor has its uncertainties. The new rider of a bicycle, seeing a tree or like object ahead, having ample room on each side and earnestly desiring to avoid the obstacle, sometimes runs upon it as if irresistibly drawn. Trolley cars, approaching each other in plain sight on a single track, sometimes collide because each motorman claims the right of way and thinks he can make the other yield and run back to the switch; so each keeps on, unwilling to show irresolution by slowing, until both are frightened; but it is too late to avoid a crash.

A freight train on a trunk line was once standing on a siding at a way station, waiting for an express headed in the same direction to pass ahead; the engineer fell asleep in his cab. The whistle of the coming express startled him, and while only partly awake he mechanically pulled the lever under the impression that this was a call for him to go. Since the switch was set for the main line his forward trucks would soon have dropped off the rail ends, but just as his engine lapped over into the main line the express engine reached the spot and caught it, dragging engines and cars into wreck.

This is only one instance, out of many which may not be so peculiar, of the failure of the human factor at some moment of trial. In the case of block signals, this factor is ordinarily at both ends; one man on the spot is to work the signal, and another one in the cab is to see it, understand it, and obey it. For any of several reasons, the signalman may fail in his part; it is, however, mechanically possible (and sometimes this is done) to nearly or quite eliminate him by some automatic electro or electro-pneumatic device. But the man in the cab remains.

At best the signal is visible in only one instant of time, which is shortened as train speed increases; if he fails to catch it just then the opportunity is gone—he has "run past." Moreover, the circumstances are difficult. Everybody who has seen the moving pictures now so popular on the projection screen has observed how the swift succession of images fatigues the eyes; so, too, the whirl past tends to drowse or hypnotize the passenger who looks long out of the car window. It must be far worse in the engine cab. The whirl of posts, buildings, switches and other objects, together with the roar of the wheels, must be confusing to the senses; a proof is that the engineers of the fastest trains lie over for alternate trips—human senses and nerves could not endure such tension every day. So it cannot be strange if the retina sometimes fails to catch the signal, or if the brain fails to instantly interpret it and give the proper order to the muscles. Perhaps the surprise should be that this dangerous slip of duty somewhere in the organism does not occur oftener.

Plainly, the desirable thing is to eliminate the human factor as respects signals and to make it impossible for the engine to run past. This can be done under electric propulsion by having the engine cut out the current as to any following one on the same block. Thus each train could close its own block in the signal sense and also physically by making the line "dead" to any following train which approached the block too soon; humanly speaking, such an automatic arrangement could not fail, being as infallible as electricity, which is the surest thing we know, after gravity. The contest between the steam locomotive and the electric is not simple, but includes many practical problems; yet this does seem to be one point on behalf of electricity.

Automatic block closing need not, however, await settlement of this problem. The Boston Elevated, an electric road temporarily using the subway as a part of its line, is now operating a device of the simplest character. Just in front of the leading truck a short arm extends downward, which is connected with the air-brake valve; ordinarily, this rides clear. When the signal is set at "danger," an arm next to one rail rises to a vertical position and remains so until the signal returns to "safety." If a motorman does not obey the signal, this raised arm strikes the lever as soon as the truck reaches the spot, and the brakes go on. The device is not patented and not costly, nor is it new; with the modification of placing it on the roof of the cab, it was suggested for steam locomotives by Mr. Westinghouse some ten years ago.

Nobody is sanguine enough to suppose that disasters can ever be made absolutely impossible. But there seems no room for doubt that an automatic device of this nature could effectually guard against rear-end collisions.

STREET RAILWAYS.

SECURITIES AND REPORTS.

This is one of our four SUPPLEMENTS. In using the series it is to be remembered that they are inter-dependent publications, complete only as a whole. If utilized together, and with the fresh items of news the CHRONICLE contains from week to week, the investor will have all the information he needs in seeking a safe and remunerative lodgment for his money.

Street Railways forcibly illustrate this inter-dependence. Such roads obviously rely for their income, and therefore in great part for the value of their securities, upon the population and activity of the country they serve. Hence constant reference to our STATE AND CITY SUPPLEMENT will be found necessary by those wishing to purchase the stocks and bonds of street roads. Population, assessed valuation, tax rate, total debts of the counties, cities and minor municipalities are given at length in that publication, every one of which items is an essential fact contributing more or less to any correct estimate of the amount of suburban travel a given road commands.

The ABBREVIATIONS used in our Street Railway statements will be found explained in a table immediately following the last statement in this SUPPLEMENT.

A full INDEX which shows where each railway will be found is also given on the closing pages.

MASSACHUSETTS ELECTRIC COMPANIES.—(See Maps Pages 12 and 13.) Electric light and street railways.

ORGANIZATION—Formed in May, 1899. Is not an incorporated company, but a voluntary association managed by a board of fifteen trustees, who hold the title to its assets. Messrs. E. Rollins Morse & Bro. and Tucker, Anthony & Co. of Boston, who promoted the combination, in June, 1899, in offering some of the stock for public subscription [$1,000 of preferred and $500 common was offered for $1,050], stated that "the Declaration of Trust contains strict provisions against the creation of any indebtedness whereby any shareholder or trustee can be held to any personal liability." Comprised originally between 30 and 40 separate properties, but through consolidation there are now only three operating companies, namely the Boston & Northern St. Ry., the Old Colony St. Ry. and the Hyde Park Electric Light Co., together with a few small lines recently acquired and in course of construction. The following is a list of the companies controlled with their share capital Sept. 30, 1902:

*Composing guaranty fund for performance of Brooklyn City Railroad Company's lease.

The Brooklyn City RR. Co. is held under a 999-year lease, dated Feb. 14, 1893, guaranteeing all fixed charges, organization expenses, taxes and 10 per cent dividend on $12,000,000 of stock. The lease is nominally to the Brooklyn Heights RR. Co. but practically to the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Co., since that company owns the entire capital stock of the Brooklyn Heights Company and guarantees payment of dividends to lessor. In 1898 the Heights Company leased the Brooklyn Queens County & Suburban RR. The lease was renewed year by year, rental being fixed charges, taxes and organization expenses. On July 1, 1901, the B. Q. C. & S. began operating separately again. On April 1, 1899, the Heights Company temporarily leased the Brooklyn Union Elevated RR. Co.—see terms under the latter—and also on the same date the Nassau Electric RR. Later, permanent leases were made. See terms under Nassau Electric.

The Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company in April, 1899, also acquired, through one of its constituent companies, all the franchises and properties of the former Brooklyn & Brighton Beach RR. Co., and has converted it into an electric road. The company also then leased for the period of 999 years the Prospect Park & Coney Island RR. (see terms under the latter), the New York & Coney Island RR. and the Prospect Park & South Brooklyn RR. In November, 1899, acquired all the stock of the Kings County Elevated Railroad, which has since been consolidated with the Brooklyn Union Elevated. In Feb., 1902, purchased property of South Brooklyn RR. & Term. Co. V. 74, p. 479.

In April, 1900, the Brooklyn Heights Company began suit against the Brooklyn City RR. to recover about $2,000,000 for failure to fulfill obligations claimed to be imposed by the terms of the lease between the two companies.

¶ Atlantic Ave. general mortgage 5s of 1931 were subject to call in 1909, but many of them (how many is not known) have been stamped releasing them from the liability to call.

Stock—Stock authorized is $45,000,000; issued $45,000,000. The stock was formerly held in a voting trust, but this terminated January 1, 1900, and control is now vested in the owners of the shares.

In the reorganization of Long Island Traction the old $30,000,000 stock paid an assessment of $10 per $100 share, the old stock being reduced to $20,000,000, and $7,000,000 of 5 per cent bonds being authorized, against $3,000,000 of Long Island Traction.

Interest on Bonds, Where Payable—Interest on the two Brooklyn Rapid Transit and the two Elevated issues is payable at the Central Trust Co.; on the Nassau Electric bonds, including Atlantic Avenue and West End issues, at the Colonial Trust Co.; on the Brooklyn Heights 1st mortgage at the People's Trust Co., Brooklyn; on the Brooklyn Queens Co. & Sub. mortgages and the Jamaica & Brooklyn 1st mortgage at the First Nat. Bank, Brooklyn; and on the Sea Beach 1st mortgage at the Brooklyn Heights RR. office.

New Mortgage for $150,000,000.—Stockholders authorized March 20, 1902, "General Consolidated and Collateral Trust Mortgage" for $150,000,000. $61,065,000 is intended to retire all the existing bonds of the system, and the rest for improvements, additions and new acquisitions, as needed from time to time. These bonds can be converted into stock, par for par, after July 1, 1904, and before July 1, 1914. In May, 1902, $5,000,000 were sold to Flower & Co. See V. 74, p. 377.

Bonds—Of the $7,000,000 50-year gold 5s of the Brooklyn Rap. Trans., $3,000,000 went to stockholders for the assessment. For description of property covered by the mortgage, see V. 62, p. 1138. See also application in V. 67, p. 904.

Brooklyn City RR. mortgage of 1891 is for $6,000,000 and is a first lien on the old Brooklyn City road and a consol. lien on the lines acquired by consolidation in 1890. Of the $6,000,000 issued, $4,373,000 are in the hands of the public and the balance is held in the guaranty fund.

The total authorized issue of first consolidated mortgage gold 5s of the Brooklyn Queens County & Suburban RR. is $4,500,000, of which $1,616,000 are reserved for extensions, on which they will be a first lien. Of the $2,884,000 outstanding, $2,255,000 in 1898 were endorsed with the guaranty of the Brooklyn Heights RR. Co. as to principal and interest, and in January, 1899, provision was made for guaranteeing the remainder on the payment of ten dollars per bond Both B. Q. C. & S. loans are subject to call in 1916.

The Sea Beach Ry. 1st 4s also are guaranteed as to principal and interest by the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Co.—V. 65, p. 1219.

The Nassau Electric bonds are guaranteed (by endorsement on each bond) by the Brooklyn Heights RR. Besides covering the mileage directly owned they are a lien by a supplemental agreement upon the stock of the Coney Island & Gravesend Ry. and the Sea Beach Ry. and will become a direct lien on these lines as soon as they have been formally merged in the Nassau Electric. Of the total of $15,000,000 bonds authorized the unissued remainder is reserved for prior liens. See listing application in V. 72, p. 342.

Of the $30,000,000, $12,285,000 are reserved by the terms of the collateral trust indenture to take up an equal amount of the underlying bonds of the allied and controlled companies now outstanding, and $2,000,000 for future betterments and improvements. The syndicate agreement with J. P. Morgan & Co. covering part of these bonds and part of the preferred stock was terminated Sept. 1, 1902.

Consolidation of Constituent Companies.—On Feb. 20, 1902, the International Railway Company was incorporated in New York with $10,120,500 stock, but in Aug., 1902, this was increased to $17,000,000, of which $16,3 0,500 has been issued (all owned by the International Traction Co.) as a consolidation of the following companies, whose shares had previously been held by the Traction Co.; V. 74, p. 427:

Buffalo Railway (after Buffalo Traction and Buffalo Bellevue & Lancaster had first been merged in the same).
Buffalo & Niagara Falls Electric Railway.
Buffalo & Lockport Railway (after Elmwood Ave. & Tonawanda Electric Railway had been merged).
Buffalo Tonawanda & Niagara Falls Electric RR.
Lockport & Olcott Railway.
Niagara Falls & Suspension Bridge Railway (after the Niagara Falls Whirlpool & Northern had been merged in it).
Niagara Falls Suspension Bridge Co.

The Buffalo Railway owned the $2,860,000 stock of the Crosstown Street Ry. of Buffalo, and this passed to the International Railway.

On July 1, 1902, the International Ry. Co. acquired by purchase the Niagara Falls Park & River Ry., the Clifton Suspension Bridge Co., the Lewiston Connect. Bridge Co. and Queenston Heights Bridge Co. This leaves the Crosstown St. Ry. Co. and International Ry. Co. as the only operating companies and eventually (that is as soon as the $1,000,000 Buffalo Ry. debentures secured by $2,000,000 stock of the Crosstown St. Ry. are retired) the Crosstown Street Ry. will also be merged, thus leaving the International Railway Co. the sole operating company and the International Traction Co. the holding company. All the outstanding stock of the International Railway and $60,000 bonds of the Tonawanda Street Railway are pledged as security for the International Traction collateral trust loan.

Liens of Constituent and Owned Companies.

CHICAGO GENERAL RY.—An electric road.

ORGANIZATION—Incorporated October 21, 1893, for 50 years. The West & South Towns St. Ry. (formerly leased) was purchased in May, 1896, and consolidated.

On Sept. 7, 1899, instituted 2½-cent fares on its branch lines (selling 10 tickets for 25 cents), without transfer, however, to main line.

On April 14, 1900, President J. H. Witbeck filed a bill for the appointment of a receiver, and on the 17th Frank H. Sellers of Chicago was appointed receiver. A reorganization committee consisting of James P. Black, Lyman M. Paine and Glenn E. Plumb, proposed that bondholders surrender one-half or more of their bonds for cancellation, accepting double the amount in stock. They were asked to deposit their bonds with the Real Estate Trust Co. of New York. No definite progress, however, has been made with the reorganization. A stockholders' committee consisting of Chas L. Bonney (General Counsel of the Company) and Wm. A. Goodman and Joseph P. Mahoney, all of Chicago, has been formed, as well as two bondholders' committees, the one for the Chicago General bonds consisting of E. M. Phelps, L. A. Goddard and J. S. Runnells, with the Merchants' L. & T. Co. of Chicago as depository, and the one for the West & South Towns bonds consisting of Granger Farwell, H. B. Davis and Arthur Heurtly, with the Northern Trust Co. of Chicago as depository. V. 74, p. 41, 204.

CHICAGO UNION TRACTION.—Cable and electric.

ORGANIZATION.—Incorporated in Illinois June 3, 1899, by the Elkins-Widener-Whitney syndicate and purchased for $10,000,000 cash the holdings of stock of Chas. T. Yerkes in the West Chicago and North Chicago roads. These holdings consisted of $3,200,000 West Chicago stock and $2,000,000 North Chicago stock. Subsequently the two systems were leased, the West Chicago for a yearly rental equal to 6 per cent on the stock and the North Chicago for a rental equal to 12 per cent on the stock, the leases being dated June 1, 1899. By a tripartite agreement entered into on the same date the Union Traction Company's holdings of stock of the two roads are to remain in trust with the Illinois Trust & Savings Bank of Chicago "for all time" as security for the leases.—See V. 68, p. 1131.

On April 14, 1900, negotiations for the acquisition of the Chicago Consolidated Traction were consummated. The Union Traction paid $45 in bonds of the Chicago Consolidated Traction bearing 4½ p. c. interest and guaranteed by Union Traction and $1 50 in cash for each share of the Consolidated company's stock. It is understood that over $14,500,000 of the total issue of $15,000,000 stock of the Consolidated Traction has been turned over under this plan.—V. 70, p. 791.

Franchises.—There has been much contention as to the company's franchises, and in June, 1901, company brought suit in the U. S. Circuit Court to restrain the city from interfering with the West Chicago and North Chicago roads. See V. 73, p. 31. Company claims a 99-year franchise under the act of 1865.—V. 72, p. 1137. In May, 1902, Court sustained on technical grounds the demurrer of the city to the bill. V. 74, p. 1037. Permission granted to appeal to U. S. Supreme Court. V. 74, p. 1307. See also V. 75, p. 1201, for decision of Judge Magruder of the Illinois Supreme Court in the transfer cases.

Protective Committee—A committee, with Walter G. Oakman as Chairman, in Jan., 1903, asked shareholders of the Chicago Union Traction, the North Chicago St. RR. and the West Chicago St. RR. to deposit their stock, with a view to coming to an agreement with the city and arranging for a general reorganization providing for a large expenditure of money. Time for deposits extended to March 2.

In the matter of the taxation of franchises, an important decision bearing adversely on all Chicago corporations was rendered by the Illinois Supreme Court in October, 1901. See V. 73, p. 902, 1114; V. 74, p. 775, 1251.

STOCK AND BONDS.—The $12,000,000 preferred stock was subscribed for at par, a bonus of 50 per cent, however, being given in common stock.—V. 68, p. 1225. There was thus $2,000,000 cash left after the payment of $10,000,000 to Mr. Yerkes, and this $2,000,000 was spent for improvements and extensions of the lines acquired.

In December, 1899, both issues of stock were listed on the New York Stock Exchange. V. 69, p. 1299.

DIVIDENDS—Dividends of 1¼ p.c. were paid on preferred shares Oct. 1899, and Jan., April, July and Oct., 1900. In Dec., 1900, it was decided temporarily to suspend dividends, and devote money to improvements. No dividends since.

(1) CHICAGO CONSOLIDATED TRACTION.—Electric roads.

On April 14, 1900, the directors of this company authorized agreement for the absorption of the company by the Chicago Union Traction. The latter company paid $45 in Chicago Consolidated Traction bonds, guaranteed by the Chicago Union Traction, and $1 50 in cash for each $100 of stock.—V. 70, p. 791. Sutro Bros. & Co. of New York sought to have the arrangement declared invalid, but Judge Gibbons, at Chicago on Apr. 17, 1901, refused to grant an injunction. Suit finally settled out of court. V. 75, p. 1030; V. 72, p. 775.

ORGANIZATION—The Chicago Consolidated Traction was organized in Feb., 1899, to unite the suburban lines of North Chicago and West Chicago. It acquired the stock of the following roads (V. 68, p. 769).
